Marcia
Hey Folks,

I've just gotten home from the New England Historical & Genealogical Society/Library in Boston.

I found a large book titled Genealogy of Henry Rhodes of Lynn [MA], the title page states: "one of three photocopies made by NEHGS Photoduplication Program from a manuscript belonging to the Rhode Island Historical Society". I wasn't able to look at it long enough to determine whether Thomas m. to Elizabeth BURRAGE is in it; and I don't believe it is indexed as to RHODES' given names.

Another book at NEHGS is Ancestral Lineages of Nelson Osgood Rhoades and Frances James (Brown) Rhoades from ancestors Henry Rhodes, of Lynn, Massachusetts; John Osgood, of Andover, Massachusetts; John Richmond, of Taunton, Massachusetts; Thomas Rogers, "Mayflower"; Lieut. Edward Woodman, Newbury, Massachusetts; Matthew Moulthrop, of New Haven, Connecticut; John Brockett, of New Haven, Connecticut; John Thompson, of New Haven, Connecticut. Reprint from The Colonial Families of the United States of America Volume VII, Copyright 1920 by Nelson Osgood Rhoades. ---- Apparently Henry had eight children, which are listed and includes birth & death dates and spouses names, and Nelson is a decendent of the second son, Samuel.

Nelson also has a typed manuscript or two which I will tell you more about in a day or two.

I would like to make contact with someone researching the following family. They are on the 1870 Butler Co. MO census (Although they were in Indiana in 1860)

Lewis Rhoads	born ca 1823	in KY
Nancy Rhoads	born ca 1824	in KY
Rachel "	born ca 1839	IN
Emily "	born ca 1840	IN
Sarah "	born ca 1843	IN
Elizabeth "	born ca 1846	IN
Lewis F "	born ca 1848	IN
Nancy E "	born ca 1850	IN
Mary Ann Bailey	born ca 1834	IN
Araminta Bailey	born March 1860	IN

In Indiana, Mary Ann (Rhoads) Bailey was living in her parents household with her husband James Bailey (39) and step-son James Bailey (9) but they evidently didn't make the move to Missouri.
Araminta Bailey married in Poplar Bluff Missouri to one John Riley Hicks (1879). They lived there for a while, then in Arkansas and Nebraska before returning to Indiana where they finished raising their family.

Any help will be appreciated. I have most of John and Araminta's history and would be willing to share information. E-mail me at smckim@venus.net

Subject: John RHODES / ROTH, Shenandoah Co, Va

Does anyone have any info on John RHODES, who married Margaret SHIREMAN about 1800 in Shenandoah county, Va? According to LDS records, he was Johann ROTH who married Margaretha.

They had these children, all born after 1802: Absalom Rhodes (m. Elizabeth Estep), Valentine Rhodes (m. Barbara Loch), Catherine (m. Daniel Bidlerman), Rosanah (m. William Estep), Christina, Barbary, Elizabeth, Susanah and John Rhodes.

After John died, Margaret and all the children moved to Ohio. Then, some moved further west to Illinois, I believe.

If anyone has any info, please write to: JeffFree@aol.com Thanks!

I am new to this list, so I guess I better get my line on Rhodes out there to see if anyone can help.

I don't have much,
Benjamin Rhodes b.jan 3,1754 Voluntown, CT d. aug 24,1791 in Wallingord
VT. m.1780 to Judith Richmond b.1753 d.1849 in Asford, NY.
child of Lydia Rhodes b. apr 27, 1790 in Wallgford VT. d. oct 19,1880 near Farragut, Fremont, IA. m. Caleb Hall. I have the children of this marriage, but this should be enough to show my line.

Hope someone can help.

I am a direct descendant of the Rhodes family you list as LINE
1. I don't have anything that matches your LINE 2 other than a MARY who was married in 1774 to JOHN LOW in Rhode island. If you are researching LINE 1, we may be able to share some information. It doesn't look to me like the lines are connected at this time.

Frederick had a brother named John Nicholas. One of Frederick's sons was John Shaffer, father of John Peter, born April 2, 1746. Frederick's wife was Anna Rosina ————.

MICHAEL SHAFFER came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before 1725. Since on Jan. 10, 1725, his name was on the first tax list compiled for the section. He was not a landowner in the valley around 1732.

NICHOLAS SHAFFER (not to be confused with John Claus Shaffer, whose full name seems to have been John Nicholas Shaffer). The compiler could find nothing beyond the fact that there were two Nicholas Shaffers, and that around 1732, neither of them seemed to be a landowner in the Tulpehocken Valley. John Nicholas Shaffer had a son named John Peter, who died in 1770. John Peter had a son of the same name.

JOHN HENRY SCHUCHERT came to the Tulpehocken region after Jan. 10, 1725, but before September, 1727. He was not a landowner in the valley around 1732. No further data was located.

JOHN ADAM SHEETZ is believed to have been the son of Conrad and Anna Maria Margaret Sheetz, and it is supposed that he came with his parents when they came to the Tulpehocken Valley in the spring of 1723. Between that time and 1725, Conrad must have died, since on the first tax list for that section, Jan. 10, 1725, John Adam was listed as one of the tax payers. Prior to 1717, Conrad and family lived at Foxtown, the present site of the Old Fort Museum, near Schoharie, N. Y. John Adam was naturalized as a British citizen at the Town Hall, Albany, N. Y., by the Mayor of Albany, on Nov. 22, 1715. He was one of the landowners in the Tulpehocken Valley around 1732.

CHRISTOPHER STUMP came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before 1725, since his name was listed on the first tax list for the section, dated Jan. 10, 1725. Around the year 1732, he was one of the land owners in the region, but listed as Christopher "Shump". It is believed that he was a son of John George and Anna Margaret Stump, who lived at Foxtown, near Schoharie, N. Y., immediately prior to 1717.

JOHN GEORGE STUMP came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before 1725. His name was on the first tax list compiled for that section on Jan. 10, 1725. He with his wife and two children sailed for England from Rotterdam, Holland, July 28, 1709, left there in the spring of 1710 and arrived at New York harbor, in June or July of same year. The Governor Hunter Ration Lists carry his name as a head of a family in 1710 and 1712, in the latter year the family consisted of four people over ten years of age. It is believed that one of the children of the family was Christopher, a landowner in the Tulpehocken Valley about 1732. Just prior to 1717, John George, his wife, Anna Margaret, and three children lived at Foxtown, the present site of the Old Fort Museum, about two miles north of Schoharie, N. Y. According to the Kocherthal Records, John George was one of the sponsors at the baptism of Maria Catherine, daughter of Abraham and Catherine Lauck, somewhere in the Hudson Valley, on Sept. 8, 1711. Abraham later became one of the earlier settlers in the Tulpehocken country, as did John George. On June 6, 1717, John George Stump was a sponsor at the baptism of John George, son of Jacob and Anna Catherine Boeshaar (Bashore). This baptism probably took place in the Schoharie Valley of New York.

MARTIN STUB (also Stubb, Stup, Stupp, etc.) came to the Tulpehocken region after Jan. 10, 1725, but before September, 1727. His name does not appear as a landowner in the valley around the year 1732, but the name of an Adam Stub, probably a son, does. Martin with three children (nothing is mentioned of a wife) sailed for England from Rotterdam, Holland, July 15, 1709, and waited there for transportation to America. They arrived at New York Harbor in June or July of 1710. Martin is mentioned as head of a family in the Hunter Ration lists in 1710 and again in 1712. In the latter year it consisted of four people over the age of ten years. It is believed that Martin married a second time, because just prior to 1717, Martin, his wife, Anna Catherine, and one child lived at Smithtown, the present site of the Schoharie Railway Station at Schoharie, N. Y. The Kocherthal Records state that Ann Elizabeth, daughter of Martin and Catherine Stub was born on Jan. 16, 1716, and baptized on the 24th of the same month. The sponsors were John Jacob Merckle and Elizabeth Shultheis. Martin was one of the charter members of the Tulpehocken Lutheran Church in 1743.

PETER TORN came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before 1725, since his name appeared on the first tax list there, Jan. 10, 1725. Later lists do not carry his name, nor do earlier ones, and it is possible that the name may have been wrongly deciphered.

JOHN ADAM WALBORN, believed to have been the father of Andrew Walborn, came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before Jan. 10, 1725, when his name appeared on the first tax

Frederick had a brother named John Nicholas. One of Frederick's sons was John Shaffer, father of John Peter, born April 4, 1746. Frederick's wife was Anna Rosina ———.

The compiler could find nothing beyond the fact that there were two Nicholas Shaffers, and that around 1732, neither of them seemed to be a landowner in the Tulpehocken Valley. John Nicholas Shaffer had a son named John Peter, who died in 1776. John Peter had a son of the same name.

JOHN MARTIN SHAFFER came to the Tulpehocken region after Jan. 10, 1725, but before September, 1727. He was not a landowner in the valley around 1732. No further data was located.

JOHN ADAM SCHMIDT is believed to have been the son of Conrad and Anna Maria Margaret Smith, and it is supposed that he came with his parents when they came to the Tulpehocken Valley in the spring of 1723. Between that time and 1725, Conrad must have died, since on the first tax list for this section, Jan. 10, 1725, John Adam was listed as one of the tax payers. Around the year 1732, he was one of the land owners in the region, but listed as Christopher "Stumpe". It is assumed that he was a son of John George and Anna Margaret Stump, who lived at Foxtown, near Schoharie, N. Y., immediately prior to 1717.

JOHN GEORGE STUMP came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before 1725. His name was on the first tax list compiled for this section on Jan. 10, 1725. He with his wife and two children sailed for England from Rotterdam, Holland, July 28, 1709, left there in the spring of 1710 and arrived at New York harbor, in June or July of same year. Abraham later became one of the earlier settlers in the Tulpehocken region, as did John George. On June 9, 1712, John George Stump was a sponsor at the baptism of John George, son of Jacob and Anna Catherine Becker (Bäcker). This baptism probably took place in the Schoharie Valley of New York.

MARTIN STUPP (also Stubb, Stup, Stump, etc.) came to the Tulpehocken region after Jan. 10, 1725, but before September, 1727. His name does not appear as a landowner in the valley around the year 1732, but the name of an Adam Stub, probably a son, does. The sponsors were John Jacob Mattle and Elizabeth Shaffer. Martin was one of the charter members of the Tulpehocken Lutheran Church in 1743.

PETER THIS came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before 1725, since his name appeared on the first tax list there, Jan. 10, 1725. Later lists do not carry his name, nor do similar ones, and it is possible that the name may have been wrongly deciphered.

JOHN ADAM WALBORN, believed to have been the father of Andrew Walborn, came to the Tulpehocken region after May 13, 1723, but before Jan. 10, 1725, when his name appeared on the first tax brecht Klotz and his wife, Krieger and his wife, Görg Lösch and his wife, Jacob [Wolpp], Johann Jacob Kohn and his wife, Gottlib Bezold, Elisabeth Harden, and our Pastor M.

The 24th of July was a Communion day. Present were Hannes Zerbe and his wife, the old Bernhardt and his wife, Nicklaus Schäffer and his wife, Jacob Schaffer and his wife, Friedrich Schäffer's wife, Nicklaus Schäffer, Caspar Schäffer, Maria Margretha Schäffer, Michel Emrich, Caspar Rith, Hermanus Walborn and his wife, Ludwig Klotz and his wife, Görg Lösch and his wife, and his son Jacob, likewise his oldest daughter, Philipine, participated for the first time and was confirmed, Maria Margretha Rith, Maria Magdalena Rith, participated for the first time and was confirmed, the old mother Feg, and our Pastor M.

On the 25th of December, Christmas Day, or the Incarnation and Birth of our Savior Jesus Christ, the Holy Communion was celebrated. NOTES

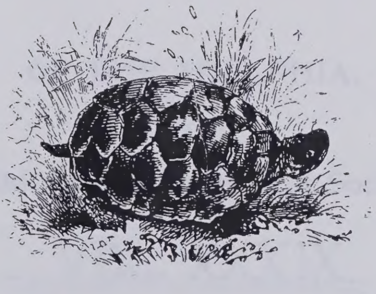
1. See Taylor, op. cit. for historical details. "His Reverence, Mr. von Thürnstein" is in reality Count Ludwig von Zinzendorf. No records of ministerial acts of Bernhardt von Thüren (or von Deuren or Dieren, as his name is also spelled) or from Caspar Leitbecker (or Liebbecker or Leutbecker) are known to exist. It seems likely that neither man had an unqualified training for the Lutheran ministry.
2. John Philip Meurer.
3. Likely Anna Maria Margarethe (Becker) Feg, widow of Johannes Feg and mother of Leonhard Feg, Michael Reed's wife and Herman Walborn's wife. Cf. Frederick S. Weiser, The German Origins of the Weisers (1965).
4. The relationship of the various Schaeffer families in the Tulpehocken settlement poses a knotty problem. Accepting a statement probably made by Conrad Weiser as true (in Egle's Notes and Queries, Series IV, v. 1, p. 40) that Frederick Schaeffer was Michael's uncle, which there is no good reason to take other than literally, then it seems highly probable that Michael, Jacob and Peter Schaeffer were sons of John Nicholas and his wife Maria Catharina, who are mentioned by Simmendinger, Kocherthal, and as sponsors and communicants in these records. Unfortunately no one seems to have left behind the name of the German village from which the Schaeffers came, to which one could turn for final clarification. Was Michael Schaeffer's wife a relative of the Peter Klopp (Glopp) family?
5. Herman Walborn was a son of Johan Adam Wallborn, who is listed as a Hoffman of the Schützenhof near Wiesbaden in the records there. His wife was a daughter of Johannes Feg and wife, who were from Idar (compare note 3.) Johann Adam Walborn (Waldborn, Wallborn) and wife, Anna Elisabetha appear after 1696 in the church books of the protestant congregation at Wiesbaden where three children were baptised: Mary Elisabetha on October 25, 1696; Christina Elisabetha on July 29, 1703; and Johann Herman on January 9, 1708. Johann Adam is listed as a "houseman" on the Schützenhof, an estate in the neighborhood. That their marriage is not listed in the record suggests that they—as many other Germans at this time—spent some years in searching for a new home in the impoverished Rhineland before they emigrated to America.
6. George Loesch's obituary in the Nazareth Moravian records states that he was born in Germsheim, near Worms. Germsheim, Germany, does not seem to be near enough to Worms to be so identified with it and moreover was a completely Roman Catholic city. A more likely place is Herrnsheim, which is in eyesight of Worms. The church records of the Protestant parish there begin in 1794, so that this assumption cannot be tested. Loesch's wife, here unnamed, was Anna Christina Wallborn, an elder sister of Herman.
7. This Elisabeth Feg was a sister of Ann Eve, Conrad Weiser's wife and a daughter, therefore, of Peter Feg. See Weiser, op. cit.
8. John Michael Emerich came from Delkenheim near Flörsheim; cf. the Kocherthal records.



ACCOUNT OF PERSONS WHO MARRIED

In the year 1741, the 2nd of November, Johann Laubbach Heg, Peter Heg's legitimate son, and the maiden Joanna von Blois, Johannes von Blois's legitimate daughter, were married.[1]

In the year 1745, the 2nd of May, Peter Fag, Peter Fag's legitimate son, and Christina Kahl, Johann Jakob Kahl's legitimate daughter, were married.

NOTES

1 See Taylor, op. cit. for historical details. "His Reverence, Mr. von Tirnstein" is in reality Count Ludwig von Zinzendorf. No records of ministerial acts at [illegible] by Pastor Jacob von Dettich or Dewitz, as the name is also spelled, or about Caspar Leonhardt von Lohbecker or Laubbecker, are known to exist. It seems likely that neither man had an established territory for the Lutheran ministry.

2 John Philip Weaver.

3 Lorly Anna Maria Margaretha (Bechtel) Fag, widow of Johannes Fag and mother of Lienhard Fag, Michael Kistler's wife and Herman Walborn's aunt. Cf. Frederick S. Weiser, The German Origins of the Weavers (1960).

4 The genealogy of the various Schnitzler families in the Lancaster settlement poses a knotty problem. Accepting a statement generally made by Conrad Weiser at that time (in Egle's Notes and Queries, Series IV, v. 1, p. 90) that Friederich Schnitzler was Michael's uncle, which there is no good reason to hold other than thereafter, then it seems highly probable that Michael, Jacob and Peter Schnitzler were sons of John Nicholas and his wife Maria Catharina, who are mentioned by Zimmerlinger, Sonnenthal, and as sponsors and communicants in these records. Unfortunately, no one seems to have left behind the name of the German village from which the Schnitzlers came, to which one could turn for final verification. Was Michael Schnitzler's wife a relative of the Peter Kleen (Klein) family?

5 Herman Walborn was a son of Johan Adam Walborn, who is listed as a Heilmann on the Heilmann [illegible] in the records. His wife was a daughter of Johannes Fag and wife, who were from Illar (Johannes born 2,) Johann Adam Walborn (Walborn), Matthias and Anna Maria (Susanna) appear after 1745 in the church books of the protestant congregation at Windsor where their children were baptized: Mary Elisabetha on October 22, 1747, Christina Elisabetha on July 20, 1751, and Johann Hermann on January 4, 1753. Johann Adam is listed as a "freeman" on the Schoenthal, an estate in the neighborhood. That their marriage is not listed in the record suggests that they—as many other Germans of this time—spent some years in searching for a new home in the Lower Palatinate before they emigrated to America.

6 George Laushn obituary in the Nazareth Moravian records states that he was born in Greenfelden near Worms, Germany. Greenfelden, Germany, does not seem to be near enough to Worms to be so identified with it and moreover was a completely Roman Catholic town. A more likely place is [illegible], which is [illegible] of Worms. The church records of the Protestant parish there begin in 1726, so that this ambiguous [illegible] has [illegible]. Lorenz's wife, [illegible], was Anna Christina Walborn, an elder sister of Herman.

7 Eva Elisabeth Fag was a sister of Ann Eva, Conrad Weiser's wife and a daughter, therefore, of Peter Fag. See Weaver, op. cit.

8 John Michael Kramer came from Dallmsheim near Friedelsheim of the Rockenhausen records.

THE SHAFFER ANCESTRY

I. FREDERICK SHAFFER

I. Frederick Shaffer, the earliest American ancestor of the Shaffer family here under consideration, was listed with one other adult in his household in the ration lists prepared under the direction of Governor Hunter of New York in 1710. He resided in Queensbury, in Livingston Manor (on the east side of the Hudson River). In the 1712 list, one child is included. He is recorded as a private in Captain John Conrad Weiser's Company which consisted of Palatine Volunteers serving against Canada in Queen Anne's War. October 11, 1715, he was naturalized as a British citizen in the Town Hall, Albany, New York. In 1717, he was recorded as "Heinrich" Shaffer, wife Rosina, one child, at New Quunsberg (Hartmansdorf), in the Schohary Valley, on the Simmendinger List. He settled in the Tulpehocken Valley between May 13, 1723 (when a letter from James Mitchell of Donegal to James Logan cited the earliest German migrants to the area) and January 10, 1725 (when he was enrolled on the first tax rating for Tulpehocken). He is one of the signers on the petition for a road to "begin at the Lutheran Meeting House on the Tulpehocken and to end in ye High Road at ye Quaker Meeting House near George Boone's Mill in Oley," dated 1727. December 5, 1739, the attorneys for William Page, the proprietor of Plumton Manor, deeded a 275-acre tract therein to Frederick, which he held at the time of his death in 1765. On September 24, 1753, Frederick, Peter, and Michael Shaver of Berks County were naturalized in Pennsylvania, listed as "such who conscientiously scruple to take an oath." It is possible these three men were related, acting as heads of families in taking this action. A Michael Shaffer died in 1759 and a Peter died in 1775, leaving families in Berks County. August 19, 1765, letters of administration in Frederick's estate were granted John Shaffer ("only son, issue, and heir"). We may assume that he was born about 1685-1690, married Anna Rosina shortly before or after he left Europe, and had only one son, John, born about 1710. Likely he was buried on Zion's (Reed's) graveyard.[1]

On September 24, 1753, Frederick, Peter, and Michael Shaver of Berks County were naturalized in Pennsylvania, listed as "such who conscientiously scruple to take an oath." II. JOHN SHAFFER

II. John Shaffer (c. 1711-1775), son of Frederick and Rosina Shaffer, became sole owner of his father's tract upon his death in 1765. He deeded 260 acres of this to his son Jacob on September 2, 1766, and the remaining 15 acres to his son John on September 1, 1766, along with a tract for 141 acres which had been patented to Michael and Katharine Miller who sold it to John on April 14, 1742. These deeds identify his wife as Elizabeth, his occupation as yeoman, his residence as Tulpehocken. His will made October 11, 1773, and probated September 16, 1775, further identifies his wife and children. Records of Christ Lutheran Church also concur in these identifications, one of the baptismal records of their children giving her maiden name as Bauer. Although her will, written February 4, and proven May 3, 1777, identifies the same children as her husband's will, there is a possibility that she was his second wife, and the mother of some, but not all of his children. The baptism of his neighbor Michael Reiss' children (at which he served as sponsor in 1752 and 1757) is recorded with the notation that this was Shaffer's second wife. Since no definite information is available, conjecture is all that can be made. He is likely buried at Christ Church or at Reed's Cemetery.

several deeds. He farmed the tract his father deeded him in 1766, selling it May 1, 1789, with wife Sophia, to Jacob Kintzer. He left no will, but letters of administration in his estate were granted January 8, 1805, to Leonard, a son, his widow Sophia having renounced her rights.

References in Pennsylvania Archives record his service in the American Revolution as follows:

1) Series V-5-148. January 25, 1776, Col. John Patton's Battalion: Lt. Col. John Reiss, Captain Michael Furrer, 1st Lt. John Shaffer. 2) V-5-183. Anna Sophia Lesch, who married III a. John Shaffer, was the daughter of John Adam Lesch and Anna Sophia Kopp, his wife. She was confirmed at Christ Lutheran Church in 1753, age 16, making her birthyear about 1737.

John Adam Lesch, or Adam Lesch as he is more generally known, came to the Tulpehocken region between 1723 and 1725. A tract of 206 acres was patented to him on December 5, 1739, which was located near Reed's Church. He erected a stone building on this property in 1753 which still stands there. This tract he sold to John Kurtz on April 12, 1764. One of Kurtz's descendants, Herbert Kurtz, still occupies this home. He was a trustee of Christ Church from 1743 until 1758. According to the Koch-several deeds. He leased the tract his father deeded him in 1760, selling it May 3, 1780, with wife Sophia, to Jacob Kantner. He left no will, but letters of administration of his estate were granted January 9, 1805, to Leonard, a son, his widow, Sophia, having renounced her rights.

References to Pennsylvania Archives record his service in the American Revolution as follows:

Anna Sophia Leech, who married III a. John Shaffer, was the daughter of John Adam Leech and Anna Sophia Kreps, his wife. She was confirmed at Christ Lutheran Church in 1755, age 16, making her birthdate about 1739.

John Adam Leech, or Adam Lesch as he is more generally known, came to the Tulpehocken region between 1723 and 1725. A tract of 278 acres was patented to him on December 3, 1730, which was located near Rieth's Church. He erected a stone building on this property in 1733 which still stands there. This tract he sold to John Kurtz on April 12, 1744. One of Kurtz's descendants, Herbert Kurtz, still occupies this house. He was a trustee of Christ Church from 1743 until 1750. erthal records, Lesch served as sponsor at the baptism of John Adam Zech, son of John and Anna Magdalena, at New York city on September 29, 1710, although he most likely was but a youth then. He was naturalized in Pennsylvania April 10, 1755, having received the Sacrament March 30.

A second tract of land which he inherited from his father-in-law, Jacob Kopp, he and his wife sold to Peter Reed on May 13, 1763.

His will, recorded in Lancaster County, was dated January 26, 1768, and proved March 25, 1768. His wife's will, also recorded in Lancaster County, was written August 29, 1770, and proved March 25, 1771. The following is recorded among the burials of Christ Church, "1771, Buried March 10, John Adam Lesch's widow, Anna Sophia, was the daughter of John Jacob Kopp, born October 13, 1695, mother of eight children, 76 years, 4 months. Their only son, John Jacob, died before his only daughter, Maria Sophia, was born, April 6, 1756, and his widow married a second time to Michael Rieth. The only daughter was the care of her grandparents, as is evidenced by the concern shown for her in their wills and in deeds they granted after her birth.

Church: John Adam, December 27, 1744, and John Jacob, June, 1750. Her father's will placed her portion of his estate in the hands of his brother George, since she lived "far from here.")[4]

Jacob Kopp, the father of Anna Sophia, Adam Lesch's wife, was also a settler at Tulpehocken between 1723 and 1725. He was patented a tract on December 4-5, 1739, which he willed dated February 3, 1741, to Adam Lesch and George Lesch, his sons-in-law; Sophia Lesch, his daughter; and John Jacob Braun, son of Elizabeth Madelina Braun. George Lesch and John Jacob Braun bequeathed this tract to Adam Lesch, February 18, 1741.

Jacob, his wife, and four children, sailed from Rotterdam for England on July 15, 1709. April of the following year they sailed from England, arriving at New York in June or July 1710. They lived at the Hayesbury Camp on the East bank of the Hudson River in 1711, and he served in that company of Palatine volunteers in Queen Anne's War. He was naturalized as a British citizen on October 11, 1715, at Albany.

(Elizabeth Magdalena Kopp, wife of Philip Braun, and her husband are buried on a hillside on their farm, which adjoined Adam Lesch's and Jacob Kopp's. Stones there state that he was born 1693, died August 19, 1767; she, born 1697, died September, 1760.)[5]

John Adam Lesch was very likely the son of Baltzer Lesch who was listed as encamped at St. Catherine's near London, on June 2, 1709, with other Palatines, waiting transportation to America. He was then 38, a Lutheran, husbandman and vinedresser. He then had three sons, aged 14, 8, and 2, and a daughter aged 9. In 1710 and 1712, Baltzer Lesch's Susanna, presumably meaning widow, was recorded on Governor Hunter's ration lists, with the same number of children; it is presumed that Baltzer died in England, en route, or shortly after arrival in America.

Title Gen. data concerning the ancestors . . . John Jacob Shaffer

Only two of their children's names are known: John Adam, already considered; and George, very likely born about 1801, who married Anna Kopp. George had several children, among whom were 1) Baltzer (who married Anna Christina Schaefer and had at least five children recorded in Christ Church records); 2) John Jacob (perhaps: a John Jacob, "wife a Weiser," served as sponsors at Christ Church in 1747); 3) Susanna Philippina, June 23, 1723, according to the Moravian archives; 4) Hermanus (b. 1726, listed in Moravian records; left 1753, died April 8, 1791. He was thrice married, once to Anna Margaret Heinsch (1727-1777), widow of Frederick Beyer, on July 29, 1758; and finally to Anna Barbara Beroth (August 7, 1732-September 15, 1813) in 1779, a widow of Martin Hirt (1729-1760), all Moravian families, founded Bethabara, N. C., but returned to Bethlehem, where he died.

(The children of Baltzer Lesch and Anna Christina Schaefer (the daughter of Michael Schaefer), were John Jacob, March 30, 1757; Anna Maria, April 12, 1760; Anna Catharine, July 12, 1761; John Peter, April 14, 1763; and Maria Salome, March 22, 1767. Baltzer Lesch was taxed in Bethel Township on lists covering 1767-1784. Nothing further has been discovered concerning these families.)[6]

III b. Simon Shaffer, son of John, married Susanna ______, and likely migrated to other regions, for only two children are recorded in Christ Church baptisms under his name, and nothing further is detected of him through local records.

Children of Simon and Susanna (______) Shaffer:

1. Rosina Shaffer, December 9, 1764.
2. Anna Eva Shaffer, June 29, 1766.

III c. Frederick Shaffer, son of John, married Margaret ______, and very likely moved to Lancaster County, for a will, written July 31, 1797, proved September 30, 1802, names a wife Margaret for a Frederick Shaffer of Lancaster County. Several Frederick Shaffers are listed with Revolutionary War service.

Children of Frederick and Margaret (______) Shaffer:

1. Rosina Shaffer, May 28, 1764.
2. Eva Shaffer, April 21, 1766.

III d. John Jacob Shaffer (September 10, 1743-April 1772) married in 1766, Mary Magdalena Rieth, who married George Hoofnagle after Shaffer's death. The death record at Christ Church states he died of consumption, was buried at Reed's cemetery, April 21, 1772. His will was written April 14, probated April 22, naming Peter Lisse and Adam Emrich as executors, who sold his land to Michael Fohrer on July 2, 1774. Various deeds identify him as a blacksmith.

Children of John Jacob and Mary Magdalena (Rieth) Shaffer:

1. John Jacob Shaffer.
2. Maria Barbara Shaffer.[7]

III g. John William Shaffer (December 17, 1751-) married Anna Maria .... He, too, evidently migrated to other regions, for after four children recorded at Christ Church, his name disappears from local record.

Children of John William and Anna Maria (...............) Shaffer:

1. John Shaffer, November 26, 1774.
2. John Jacob Shaffer, January 31, 1776.
3. Eva Barbara Shaffer, January 1, 1779.
4. Maria Catharine Shaffer, January 3, 1783.

IV a. John Shaffer (July 23, 1761-), eldest son of John (1735-1804), was a farmer in Heidelberg Township, Berks County, for a time. On May 1, 1797, he and his brother Jacob purchased two tracts from Conrad and Barbara Weiser, then of Penn Township, Northumberland (now Snyder) County. The first of these, for 179 acres, was part of the original Conrad Weiser estate. The other, for 50 acres, had been sold by Peter Fraidley, the sheriff of Berks County, to John and Sophia Shaffer, January 7, 1795, by whom it was deeded to Conrad and Barbara Weiser, January 12, 1796.

John and Christina, his wife, sold their share in this land to the brother Jacob on May 14, 1801, and received a deed the same date for a tract which his father and mother, John and Sophia, had purchased April 14, 1795, from George Ege. This land they sold in 1804 and 1806. On April 24, 1811, a John Shaffer ("late of

III d. John Jacob Shafer (December 10, 1743-April 1772) married in 1766, Mary Magdalena Roth, who married George Heckinger after Jacob's death. The death record at Christ Church states he died of consumption, was buried at Shafer's cemetery, April 21, 1772. His will was written April 14, probated April 25, naming Peter Lanz and Adam Ernrich as executors, who sold his land to Michael Fackery on July 2, 1774. Various deeds identify him as a blacksmith.

Children of John Jacob and Mary Magdalena (Roth) Shafer:

1. John Jacob Shafer
2. Maria Barbara Shafer

III g. John William Shafer (December 17, 1751-) married Anna Maria ______ (?), and may, probably emigrated to other regions, for after four children recorded at Christ Church, his name disappears from local records.

the following children in the order of their birth: George H.; Sarah (Mrs. Jacob Bear); Elizabeth (Mrs. Frederick Wendt, Jr.); Philip, Catherine (Mrs. John Steffen); Peter; Anna Maria (Mrs. George Steffen); John; Barbara (Mrs. Peter Bertch) and Jacob (born Oct. 10, 1818).

MICHAEL SHAFFER lived in what is now Chapman or Perry Township before 1790. In the U. S. Census of 1790, his family consisted of one male over, and one under 16 years, and five females. In 1796, he was assessed land. personal property, and a sawmill in Mahantango Township. He married Salome, who it is believed was a daughter of John Reichenbach, Sr. Jonn was an early resident of that section. Michael died in Perry Township. His will was made on April 19, 1821, and probated at Lewisburg, Pa., on May 15, 1821. The will mentions his wife, Salome, and the following children: Anna Maria (Mrs. John Troup). who died before her father; Catherine (Mrs. Peter Troup); Elizabeth (Mrs. Jacob Reichenbach); Susan (Mrs. Solomon Gamby); Sarah (Mrs. George Gamby); Margaret and Christina. Maria, Elizabeth, and Sarah were baptized at Grubb's Church. The dates of their births were: May 21, 1790, April 23, 1792, and Feb. 1, 1799. respectively. Michael served in the companies of Captain William Weirick, Captain Charles Meyer, and Captain John Snyder of the Northumberland County Militia during the Revolutionary period.

SECOND LIEUTENANT JOHN ADAM SHAFFER lived in Penn Township in 1776, and in Miles Township, now Center County, Pa., about 1790. He was born on October 31, 1752, and died in Center County on January 14, 1840. He is buried in Madisonburg in that county. He was Second Lieutenant of Captain Benjamin Weiser's company, German Regiment, Continental Line, and was stationed at Philadelphia, Pa., on January 30, 1777.

LUDWIG (LEWIS) SHAFFER from 1776 to 1781, when his name from 1776 to 1761, when his name disappeared. In the latter year he was taxed with 50 acres of land and personal property. He served as a private in the 4th Company, 4th Battalion of the Northumberland County Militia, under Captain William Weirick.

NICHOLAS SHAFFER lived in Penn Township as early as 1776. In 1797, he lived in Miles Township, Center County. He served as a private in Captain Benjamin Weiser's Company, German Reigiment, Continental Line, and on January 30, 1777, was stationed at Philadelphia, Pa. It is believed that he was a brother of Second Lieutenant John Adam Shaffer of that company.

PETER SHAFFER. One record states that he settled at the mouth of Mahantango Creek as early as 1765. (The compiler doubts this.) His name appeared on the Penn Township tax list for the first time in 1776. In 1781, he was assessed with 100 acres and personal property. In 1796. when Mahantango Township was formed, he was assessed there. He died in what is now Perry Township, Snyder County. and his will was probated at Lewisburg, Pa., on September 17, 1819. It mentions his wife, Eve, and the following children: John George, John Peter, 1775-1847, who married Anna Maria. daughter of Captain Simon Herrold. and they had a son Jacob, who was born Oct. 10, 1818, according to the Grubb's Church Baptismal Record), Henry, Jacob, Sarah. Susanna, Elizabeth, Barbara, and Samuel. His wife and Adam Nerhood (maybe a son-in-law) were executors of the will. Peter served as a private in the companies of Captain Michael Weaver and Captain John Black of the Northumberland County Militia. In 1790, his family consisted of one male over and three under 16 years and five females.

WLLIAM SHAW was assessed in Penn Township only in the year of 1781. In 1778, he was assessed in Buffalo Township, and in 1786, he was assessed with 400 acres, gristmill, and personal property in Turbot Township, Northumberland County. It is believed that he died in 1811. Several men of this name served in the Revolution. One of them was a Sergeant in the 11th Pennsylvania Regiment. and the other received depreciation pay for services in the Cumberland County Militia.

CHRISTOPHER SHAWVER. JUNIOR, (also Shawber. Shauver, etc.) was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1793. No military record was found for him.

ANDREW SHEARER, blacksmith, was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1799. An Andrew Shearer served as a private in Captain Paxton's Company of the Bedford County Militia.

MATHIAS SHEARER lived in Penn Township in 1780. The date of his first assessment there is unknown to the compiler. He served as a private in Captain Michael Motz's Company of the Northumberland County Militia.

JACOB SHEASLEY (also Sheesley, Sheasley, Shissley, Shessly, etc.) was assessed with 50 acres and personal property in Upper Paxton Township. Lancaster County, Pa.. in 1782. He was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1785. and in 1786 he was taxed with 150 acres and personalty. No military record was found for him.

GEORGE SHERRARD (probably meant for George Jarrett) was assessed as a single freeman in Beaver Township for the first time in 1789. He may have been a son of Jacob Jarrett, who lived in that section at that time.

ABRAHAM SHESSARE lived in Penn or an adjoining township during part of the Revolutionary period. He served as a private in Captain William Weirick's Company of the Northumberland County Militia.

ANDREW SHETTERLY (also Shetterley, Shetterle, Shatterly, Shatterle, etc.) was assessed in Penn Township as early as 1776, but at the time he was a nonresident landowner. He lived in the township for the first time in 1782. John, probably a son, may have lived in the district before that time. In 1784, Andrew was assessed with 200 acres and personal property, and in 1796, when Mahantango Township was formed he was taxed there. Andrew and his wife, Anna Maria. were among the early members of the Grubb's Lutheran Church in what is now Chapman Township. and they stood as sponsors for more children there than any other couple. The last occasion of this kind was on July 3, 1831, when they were sponsors for Andrew Washington, son of Samuel and Elizabeth Ketterman. John, George, David, and Henry, were sons of other relatives of Andrew. In 1790, Anrew's family consisted of one male over and one under 16 years, and two females. It is believed that Andrew was a son of Jacob Shetterly, who embarked for America at Rotterdam, Holland. in the British ship "Anderson," Captain Hugh Campbell, Master. arrived at Philadelphia, and took the English oath of allegiance there on August 25th, 1751. No military record was found for Andrew, but it is believed that he served during the Revolution.

DAVID SHETTERLY lived in what is now Chapman or Perry Township before 1800. He may have been a son of Andrew, mentioned above. He died in 1802.

GEORGE SHETTERLY lived in what is now Chapman or Perry ment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, with which he served to the close of the war. One of his discharges is upon sheepskin. Returning to McEwensville after the war he cultivated some land which he owned, and meantime continued to follow teaching, which he had begun when only fifteen years old and followed in all for thirty-three terms. He has a certificate bearing the date Nov. 18, 1857, issued by County Superintendent John J. Reimensnyder. He taught principally in and around McEwensville, and was one of the old-time schoolmasters of that vicinity, thorough and efficient in all his work and bearing a high reputation. Mr. Gold is an independent voter and at one time took an influential part in county politics. For a quarter of a century he was constable of McEwensville, and has been justice of the peace for a number of years.

On July 4, 1861, Mr. Gold married Sarah Cooner, who died April 13, 1910, aged seventy-nine years. She was a Presbyterian in religious faith, while Mr. Gold is a Lutheran. They had children as follows: Davilla, unmarried, who lives at McEwensville; Ambrose, unmarried, of Homewood, Pa.; Mary, who married Dr. E. J. Schlicher, and lives at McEwensville; Inez, wife of Charles Woller, living at Williamsport; Elizabeth, who died in infancy; John C., who died in the oil region in Ohio, by suffocation; and Susan, who married Wilson Cotner, of McEwensville.

Henry D. Gold, another son of David Gold, was born Feb. 10, 1829, in Bushkill township, Northampton Co., Pa., and came with his parents to Northumberland county in 1841, locating at McEwensville, where he grew up. When about eighteen he began clerking in a general store, following that work some years, after which he conducted a store of his own at Exchange, Montour county, where he was in business for some years. Moving thence to Clarkstown, Lycoming county, he carried on a general store at that place until his death, Feb. 8, 1899, when he was seventy years old, less two days. He was a Republican in sentiment, but was no politician. Widely known as a business man, his patrons came from a large territory, and he was universally liked and respected. For twelve years he served as postmaster. He is buried at McEwensville. Mr. Gold was a Lutheran in religious faith. He married Eleanor Wilson, who was born July 3, 1831, daughter of William and Eleanor (Blaine) Wilson, of Lewis township, this county, and died Feb. 9, 1905. Mr. and Mrs. Gold had three children: William W., born in April, 1859, who died in his fifth year, in February, 1864; and Horace and Henry D., Jr., both born in Muncy Creek township, Lycoming county.

Horace Gold, born April 9, 1864, was educated in the common schools and in the Lycoming county normal school, and when seventeen years old was licensed to teach. He taught five terms in his native county and one term in Northumberland. In the spring of 1887 he engaged in farming in Lewis township, Northumberland county, where he and his brother now live. He has a tract of 161 acres, formerly the James Blaine homestead, the Blaines having been the original owners of this land. The old patent deed, written on parchment, is in Mr. Gold's possession. Mr. James Blaine built the large stone house which is still standing in 1810. Mr. Gold is a general farmer. He is a member of the Reformed Church and a Republican in politics.

On Dec. 25, 1890, Mr. Gold married Julia Ann Steiner, daughter of William H. and Caroline (Desher) Steiner, whose parents came from Northampton county, Pa. Five children have been born to this union: William H., Edith Ellen, Margaret J., John S. and Florence E.

Henry D. Gold, Jr., born June 4, 1867, was educated in the common schools and the Normal school at Muncy. He was reared to farming, assisting his father in the store until he moved to Lewis township, he and his brother owning the farm jointly for some years, when he sold his interest to his brother Horace, for whom he has since worked. He is holding a local office at present and takes an interest in public affairs. In politics he is a Republican, in religion a member of the Presbyterian Church.

AARON SHAFFER, a farmer near the village of Urban, in Jordan township, was born Feb. 7, 1853, on the farm where he now lives, son of William T. and Mary (Lenker) Shaffer. He is a grandson of Michael Shaffer, who came into this region from Berks county, and who it is supposed was a descendant of Michael Sheaffer, who settled "on Tulpehocken" in 1733 and died about 1760. Among his children were: John Nicholas; Maria Catharine; Mrs. John Jacob Larch; Anna Barbara, who married David Brown; Margaretta Elizabeth, who married Hieronymus Rudy; and Leonard. We have record only of Leonard, who was a resident of Heidelberg township, Berks county, where he owned a farm and the old Sheaffer hotel stand, which he conducted for some years. He died in middle age, and his wife conducted the hotel for some years, marrying for her second husband George Gernant, who was sheriff of Berks county from 1844 to 1847. One daughter was born to this union, Harriet, who became the wife of Henry Van Reed. To Leonard and Elizabeth (Hain) Sheaffer were born children as follows: Leonard, who died when twenty years old; Benjamin, who married Catharine Mengel and died in Cumru township, Berks county, Nov. 24, 1887, in his eightieth year; John, who settled in Washington, D. C., where his children still reside; Joseph, whose son Daniel is a well known cigarmaker at Norristown, Pa.; Catharine, who married John Saylor; and Sophia, who married Daniel Hebener, a drover of Reading, who it is believed was murdered, as he never returned from a trip on which he went with money to buy cattle.

Michael Shaffer, the grandfather of Aaron Shaffer, was born in Berks county March 17, 1783, therefore it would seem likely he was a grandson of the Michael Sheaffer mentioned above if he came from that stock. Moving from Rehrersburg, Berks county, he settled in Dauphin county, near Gratz, where he lived for about two years, thence removing to Jordan township, Northumberland county, where he took up land upon which he resided the remainder of his life. He was one of the pioneers in the Stone Valley, where he was one of the extensive land owners and substantial citizens of his day. Physically he was of medium size. He died June 30, 1860, and is buried at St. Paul's Church, at Urban, of which he was a Lutheran member. Michael Shaffer was married before his removal into this section, his wife being Elizabeth (Tobias), born June 13, 1788, died Oct. 6, 1861. She, too, is buried at the Urban Church. They had three sons and two daughters: Joseph settled in Crawford county, Pa., where he followed farming and died leaving a large family; William T. is mentioned below; Moses, who was a carpenter and farmer, settled in Jefferson county, Pa., where he died (he had two sons); Lydia married Abraham Klock and they lived and died in Northumberland county; Amanda married Edw. Baum.

William T. Shaffer, son of Michael, was a farmer on the old homestead in Jordan township, where he passed all but a few years of his life, moving away for a short time after his marriage. He was born June 17, 1819, and died May 28, 1888. In his earlier life he was a boatman on the Pennsylvania canal, and later he was extensively engaged in lime burning as well as farming, keeping many teams busy hauling his lime. He was active in church and public affairs, and held offices in his township and church. He and his wife, Mary, are buried at St. Paul's; she was born July 4, 1816, daughter of Michael Lenker (who married an Emerich), and died Dec. 28, 1896. They were the parents of the following children: Michael, who served as a soldier in the Civil war, after which he went out to northwestern Nebraska, where he became a cowboy (he had a family of four children); Moses; Isaac; Aaron; William, who died young; Catharine, married to Jacob Byerly; Louisa, married to Daniel Sherry; Mary, married to William Kutz; and Jane, who married Jesse Stehr and (second) Charles Shade. Aaron and Jane are the only survivors of this family.

Aaron Shaffer was reared under the parental roof, and learned the details of farm work at an early age. He obtained a good, practical education in the public schools of the home locality and by applying himself as he grew older, and he lived at home, working for his parents, until he became of age. When quite young he began to burn lime, which he hauled to the different farmers summer and winter, after that became the custom. In the early days, when he burned as much as 28,000 or 30,000 bushels in a year, the farmers came for the lime, doing their own hauling, but it soon became the custom for the lime burner to deliver it. When he came to carry on this business less extensively, Mr. Shaffer averaged 12,000 bushels annually for ten years. For a number of years Mr. Shaffer furnished the horses to the State of Pennsylvania for use at the annual encampments of the National Guard, held at Mount Gretna and Gettysburg.

When Mr. Shaffer's grandfather, Michael, owned the farm, which has been in the family name at least since 1830, its acreage was much greater, between 250 and 300 acres, extending down to Urban. When Aaron Shaffer bought the homestead it comprised only ninety acres, to which he has added until he now has 130. The present house and barn were erected by William T. Shaffer, the latter about 1866-67, and there is still standing on the tract a log tenant house built by Michael Shaffer. Aaron Shaffer is a progressive but conservative member of his community, respected and trusted by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He has been a valuable citizen, having served many years as a member of the township school board, and for a number of years past he has been an overseer of the poor. Politically he is a Democrat, and in religion he is a Lutheran, belonging to St. Paul's Church; he was deacon for many years, later an elder, and since 1900 has been a trustee.

In 1882 Mr. Shaffer married Lizzie Baum, daughter of Henry D. and Catharine (Moyer) Baum, of Mahantango township, Schuylkill Co., Pa., and they have had five children: Jennie M., who married Charles Engel and lives at Herndon, Pa.; William H., born May 31, 1887; Charles D., born Feb. 2, 1889; Mamie C.; and George R.

ROTHERMEL. The Rothermel family is well represented in Jordan township, where William W., Lazarus W., Manasses W. and Monroe Rothermel, all sons of the late Isaac Rothermel, reside. The Rothermels have been identified with this section of Northumberland from the beginning of the last century, when Abraham Rothermel, grandfather of the four brothers mentioned, came hither from Berks county, where his ancestors located in an early day.

This Rothermel family traces its genealogy back some four hundred years to one Johannes Rothermel, who won both fame and a name in the early wars of Germany. He was a brave soldier, and so frequently dyed his arm in the blood of his enemies that his comrades designated him as der Roth Ermel (red sleeve), and in this way he acquired the name Rothermel.

PIONEERS AND PATRIOTS

"Over the Blue Mountain"

Formerly Berks and Northampton
now
Schuylkill County Pennsylvania

Colonial and Revolutionary Period

Compiled by F. Richard Turnbach

Henry ORWIG was born on 6 Dec 1753; likely in Maiden Creek Township, Berks, where his father appears on tax records 1752 through at least 1758, [incidentally, long after the dates often given for the arrival of this family "Over the Blue Mountains".] He died on 14 Dec 1836; buried in Orwigsburg. He married Elizabeth HERRING 8Aug1782. She was born on 18 Oct 1757; died on 13 Sep 1834, also buried at Orwigsburg. He was a Lieutenant in the Brunswick militia.

Anna Maria, confirmed 1766 "Over the Mountain" may have been the first wife of Bernard EISENHUTH

Catherina ORWIG, also confirmed 1766, may have married Friederick WAMBOLD.

Susanna Elizabeth, was born on 12 Nov 1755, Christened on 18 Dec 1755 in Zion Moselem Church, Elizabeth Susanna REICHARD was sponsor. She was Confirmed at Zion Red Church in 1773. She is believed to have been the second wife of Ludwig HERRING. He was born on 27 Jun 1734; died on 16 Feb 1788 in Brunswick Twp., buried in Zion Red Church cemetery with his first wife. He was on the passenger list on 30 Sep 1754, Ship Neptune.

He was a 2nd Lieutenant in Capt Whetstone's Brunswick Company in 1777. Ludwig and Elizabeth had the following children: Catherine born about Sep 1784;. Mary born about 1785/1786; and Elizabeth who was born about 1787, all mentioned in his will.

Ludwig HERRING had several children by his first wife, Maria Christina, who died in 1781. No previous or later marriage evidence has been found by the compiler for Elizabeth, her burial place has not been determined.

George ORWIG was born on 11 Mar 1758 in Berks Co., Christened 14 April 1758 in Moselem Church Richmond Twp., Berks. He died on 2 Mar 1841 in Mifflinburg, Union Co., Pa. His pension application is very interesting in that he details the battles and events in which he participated, mentions that he and his brother relieved each other at Camp, so that one of them was home to work the land. He mentions the physical hardships and sacrifices that the troops had to endure during their active duty service. He served in 1776 Flying Camp, Capt James Old's Co; 1777 Capt J Whetstone's Co; Battle of Brandywine; and 1778 at Ft. Jenkins, among other events. He also served as County Commissioner of Schuylkill County.

He married Mary Magdalena, a daughter of John Conrad GILBERT and Ann Elizabeth STOLTZ born on 10 Aug 1758, Christened in new Hanover Lutheran Church, now Montgomery Co., PA. He died on 30 Jan 1841 in Mifflinburg, Union Co. PA 82-5-2. They had the following children: George born about 1780; died on 1 Feb 1852 in Sandusky, Ohio area [Die Stimme...death notice @72yrs]; married Rosina DEIBERT, born about Jan 1781, she was Christened on 12 Apr 1781 in Zion Church, sponsors were her grandparents Michael and Rosina RENTSCHLER. Johannes was born about Jun 1781 Christened on 26 Jul 1781 in Zion Church, J. George and Maria Margaretha RAUSH were sponsors. Jacob ORWIG was born on 18 Apr 1783, Christened in Zion Church- Christian HERRING and Elizabeth were sponsors; Abraham was born on 26 Feb 1786 in Brunswick Twp., Christened in Zion Church, George HUNTZINGER and Anna Maria were sponsors. He married Elizabeth WAGNER a daughter of Christopher. Isaac born on 27 Feb 1785; Christened on 28 Mar 1785 in Zion Church, Martin WERNER and Catherine were sponsors. He died on 10 Oct 1872. He married Elizabeth YEAGER, a daughter of Conrad. Maria Magdalena was born on 5 Dec 1793.

John Jacob Schaeffer was born on 7 Feb 1709, youngest son of Nicholas. He died in 1789 in Brunswick, Berks. Likely buried at Zion Cemetery, where Church records identify him as a "Baumeister". In his will made 14 May 1782; proved 11 May 1789, recorded Berks County, he names all children- including the married names of daughters.

He married Mary Barbara KOBEL on 10 Jun 1735 according to the Moravian Tulpehocken Church records, held at the Archives at Bethlehem, PA. They had the following children: Nicholas; Maria Engel; Maria Catherine; Johannes; Anna Elizabeth; Maria

Henry DEWIG was born on 4 Dec 1753, likely in Maiden Creek Township, Berks, where his father appears on tax records 1752 through at least 1758, [incidentally, long after the dates often given for the arrival of this family "Over the Blue Mountains".] He died on 14 Dec 1826, buried in Orwigsburg. and who was probably the father of the famous Captain Samuel Teter and the George Teter who lived in southwest Virginia and later went to Kentucky.

Aug. 29, 1730. Ship Thistle.

On this ship was Valentine Griessemer, whose son Caspar married Rebecca Eschman, a sister of Magdalena Eschman who married John Justus Henkel, later in Pendleton Co. Va.

Also: Johann Mattheis Theiss, who at first lived in the Tulpehocken region, and then came to the South Branch in Virginia, where the name became "Dice" Also on this same ship were: Johannes Dunkell, who was probably the John Dunkel of the South Branch; also Leonard and John Caplinger (Köpplinger), of the family which also went to the South Branch, and intermarried with the Dice family. Also on this boat was Hans Minigh, probably the John Minnich of Tulpehocken.

Sept. 5, 1730. Ship Alexander and Anne.

John Henry Lansiscus who appears later on the South Branch, and with him Hantz Lansiscus, (brother or father probably). Also:

Frantz Blum Johann Philip Emmert

Mattheus Soltser Johan Sebastian Graff

8. Godfrey Fidler:

He does not seem to appear on any of the sailing lists that we have. (Again he may have paid his own expenses for the voyage to England).

In the New York food lists he appears in both 1710 and 1712 as with a wife but no children. He was living then on the west side of the river.

On the Simmendinger list of 1717 he appears as living in Brunnensdorf, with wife Anna Elisabeth and 2 children.

In the Kocherthal records, he and his wife were sponsors at the baptism of John Godfrey, the son of John Peter and Elisabeth Barbara "Knirstenberg" (Probably this name should be Kniskern). This was on June 7, 1717.

9. John Nicholas Schaefer:

He came in the fifth sailing party from Holland. In the list dated July 15, 1709, he appears as "Nicklaas Scheefer" and wife.

On the New York food lists he appears in 1710 with 4 over 16 and 4 under; and in 1712 he had 8 over 16 and 3 under.

The Simmendinger list of 1717 shows him living in Weisersdorf, with wife Maria Catherine and 4 children. He had been naturalized at Albany on Oct. 11, 1715.

The First Tulpehocken Settlers

The earliest documentary data on the identity of the first settlers in the Tulpehocken region is taken from the now famous petition to the Colonial authorities, which was read before the Council on Feb.10, 1725. At that time it was referred to Mr. Logan and a committee, who were to report back to the Council. But it was not until June 6, 1728 that it was again brought up and spread on the minutes of the Council.

This petition was of "us the subscribers, being 33 families in number, at present inhabiting Tulpaheca creek", etc. They said that they were "natives of Germany" who "about 15 years ago" had been transported to New York, etc. Due to dissatisfaction with conditions in that province, since they were "confirmed to only 10 acres of land" apiece, they "did last year" leave New York and on the invitation of Gov. Logan came to Pennsylvania. They asked now to be allowed to purchase their land and have a clear title, and "may be freed from the demands of the Indians of that part of the country who pretend a right thereto", etc. They also say that 50 more families are ready and desirous of coming there on these same conditions. There were 15 signers to this petition (names as given below). Since it says that they came last year, it is evident that the petition was written in 1724 (though not presented until in February, 1725). Probably these 15 signers represent the first company of families who came in 1723, and that they were then followed in 1724 by enough more to make up the the mentioned 33 families. Other families (probably of those 50 mentioned) came in 1726, and others even later. The Indian claims to the land there were not relinguished until the treaty of Sept.7, 1732, and warrants for the lands there were not actually issued to the settlers until 1734.

The signatures to this petition of 1724-25, as transcribed by the clerk and printed were as follows:

1. Johannes Yans
2. Peter Riet
3. Conrad Schitz
4. Balt. Unsf.
5. Toritine Serbe
6. Joseph Sab
7. Jorg Ritt
8. Godfrey Filler

10. Jo. Hamoler Ritt
11. Antonis Shart
12. Johan Peter Pacht
13. Johan Michael Chricht
14. Sebastian Pisse
15. Andrew Falborn

An article by Dr. Wm. J. Hinke, written after long study of these names and other early lists, gives a corrected and revised reading of these names of the 15 men who signed the petition as follows:

1. Johannes Gons
2. Peter Rieth
3. Hans Adam Schuetz
4. Baltsar Anspach
5. Martin Zerbe
6. Jacob Kapp
7. George Rieth
8. Godfrey Fidler
9. John Nicholas Schaefer
10. John Leonard Rieth
11. Anthony Shaad
12. Johann Peter "Pacht"
13. Michael Emrich
14. Sebastian Fisher
15. Adam Walborn.

(Even Dr. Hinke thinks the "Pacht" in the 12th name must be a misreading. There was no such person. He suggests (and I agree

The Dice Family

The Dice family of early Augusta Co., Virginia, also came there from the Tulpehocken region of Pennsylvania. Matthew Theiss was an early settler in Tulpehocken, probably coming there directly from Germany, (although there had been a Matthew Theis on the early Palatine emigrant lists and others of that name living among the Palatines in New York before the removal to Tulpehocken).

In the ship Thistle, arriving June 19, 1730, was:

Johann Matheis Theiss

(Also in this same ship came Johannes Dunkell, Hans Minigh, Nickel Kintzer, and Leonard and Johannes Caplinger).

Matthew Tice appears in early Tulpehocken accounts of 1744, and he died probably in 1748, as the Adm of this estate is on the Lancaster Co. records, dated 1748. Egles, in his History of Dauphin and Lebanon Counties, says that Matthew Tice settled at Tulpehocken and worked for Frederick Miller for 9 cents a day. He died "previous to 1754" and left children: Michael, Matthew, John, George, Henry, Daniel and Elizabeth.

The eldest son Michael Theiss remained at Tulpehocken. He and his wife Elizabeth are buried in the Trinity Reformed cemetery. Their stones say that Michael was born Feb.2, 1728 and died March 20, 1804, and Elizabeth was born April 13, 1730 and died Sept.22, 1804. Her maiden name was Rieth. Baptism of several of their children appear on the church records there.

Two daughters of John Dice also were baptized in 1765 and 1769

George Dice was confirmed at Whitsunday in 1754. On May 4, 1760, Catharina Elisabetha, the daughter of George Dice and wife Anna Margaret was baptized. (Born April 11). Sponsors were Maria Elizabeth Deiss, single. (Evidently the sister of George).

Both Matthew Tice and George Dice, the sons of the older Matthew Dice, came to the South Branch in Virginia.

Some early records from Augusta Co. are as follows:

March 15, 1757. Deed from Wm. Stephenson and wife Sarah to Mathias Tice, for 90 pounds, 200 acres on the South Fork (next John Patton). Delivered to Matthias Dice in March 1769.

Aug. 18, 1761. Due to Matthias Dice from estate of Mark Miller.

Sept. 9, 1766. George Dice one of the appraisers of the estate of Valentine Giles.

July 10, 1769. The accounts of George and Matthias Dice of the estate of Nicholas Hevener's. estate.

March 28, 1771. Mary Dice qualifies as adm. of estate of her husband George Dice.

The Schaeffer's of the Tulpehocken Settlement

The "Schaeffer" name has many, many, many, spelling variations:

Schaeffer, Schaefer, Schafer, Shaefer, Shaefer, Shaffer, Schaver, Shaver, Sheffer, Shefer, Shiffer, Shifer, Schaffner, Shafer, Schoeffer, Schoffer, Schofer, and … Often in the 18th and 19th century an umlaut was used over the "ä ".

A variant in spelling the "S…r" name implies little as to the lineage or relationship of individuals. In my research, I've found up to three alternate spellings for the same individual in primary source documents. So, if you researching the Schaeffer name – no matter how it's spelled -- welcome to my site!!!

I was born in Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania which was the earliest town in what was the Tulpehocken Settlement. Much of the land that comprises this present day town was purchased from a Schaeffer. Europeans first occupied this area in 1723 when a small group of German (Palatine) settlers moved south from Schoharie, an earlier settlement in what is now New York State. Additional Palatine families followed them in 1724. It is believed that Johann Nicholas Schaeffer and his brother Johann Friederich were among this second wave of migrants to the Tulpehocken from New York's Schoharie valley.

Nicholas, Friederich, and their descendants have been well researched and many Schaeffer's across the United States and around the world can tie their lineage back to these pioneers. The irony is that this Schaeffer who is from Womelsdorf and who can trace his roots in the Tulpehocken area to at least the 1790's has not yet been able to develop a link to either the Nicholas or Friederich trees.

Perhaps there are hidden branches in the known Schaeffer trees? Or, perhaps there were other early Schaeffer pioneers who settled in Tulpehocken? These are the issues that I am researching. To answer these questions I am currently gathering as much information as I can about all the Schaeffer's living in the Tulpehocken and contiguous areas before 1850.

To date I have collected information on over 500 individuals. While I use secondary sources to uncover leads, my focus is to collect and document the Schaeffers by relying, where possible, on primary records or translations, where necessary. This site does not contain this information because it is very much a work in process and much of the structure is unproven. If you can provide any information relative to this area of my research or if you are also investigating the Schaeffer's please contact me.

What I have included on this site is my ancestral tree, less any information on living individuals. I am not listed on this tree. Perhaps, eventually my research will allow me to tie my ancestral tree back to the earliest Schaeffer's in the Tulpehocken settlement.

Currently, Jacob Schaeffer and his wife Christina are my earliest known ancestors. They had a son George who was born in about 1792. George Schaeffer married Maria Batdorf in 1818 at the Zion Union Church in Womelsdorf. George and Maria had at least eight children. I have evidence that one of these children John Schaeffer (born 8-21-1823) lived in Newton county, Indiana in 1866. Perhaps this lead will help a fellow researcher. Another younger son George B. Schaeffer was my ancestor.

Again, please free to contact me if you think or even suspect that we are on the same path.

Hello Bill,

I do not see a connection to my Shaffer line, but I am forwarding this to the SHAFFER List. Perhaps someone there will see a connection. Good luck in your research.

Mark

Carolyn,
Michael Schaeffer and Anna Margaretha Gleb Schaeffer, who immigrated from Schoharie, were my sixth great grandparents. The following is my research on their daughter, Anna Maria Catharina. Hope this helps.

The Borough of Hatfield was created from a part of Moreland in 1871 and part of Hatfield Township 1898

Norristown was created from Norriton Township, 1812

Pottstown from part of Pottsgrove Township in 1815

We have listed the year of the death, whenever possible, the decedents name and the township in which he resided.

The letters "RW" designate "Register of Wills" and a will has been filed under this number. The asterick proceeding RW, means that the will is on microfilm and can be seen at the Library of the Historical Society of Montgomery County, located at 1654 DeKalb Street, Norristown. The original will is filed in the Record Room of the Court House.

The letters "OC" shows that papers are filed in the Orphans Court on the estate, these also can be found in the Record Room of the Court House.

Unfortunately in the Court House Index very few of the names listed give dates, either of the death or of the recording of the will or administration, therefore there may be some listed in this Index, who died after 1850.

Copy verbatum on this form the information you find in the various records or books as you do your research. (You will find differences in records.) Make a separate sheet for each search or each name or family on your line found in a search. Then, after information has been extracted from all sources, you may easily make comparisons of statements, judge value of each, and record correct data on a permanent form such as A1, F1, F3 or F6. See The Sixth Edition THE HOW BOOK FOR GENEALOGISTS for additional suggestions regarding the use of this sheet.

Harriett Anstett Ancestry

Harriett Anstett was born 23 Sept. 1846 Lancaster Co. Pa. Her parents George Anstett and Susan Stofer were from the Alsace Lorraine area of France. They lived in the villiage of St. Nicholas near Nancy.

Her father George was a tailor. George, Susan and their two children immegrated to America in 1833. They lived in Pa. where 7 more children were born. They moved to Peru Ind. and are in the 1850 Census Miami Twp.

George made suits for the Indians. The Indians were friendly by day and stole from them at night. Susan tired of this said, "It's time to move".

They moved to Auburn, Ind. where it is said they could stand on their front porch and count the houses in Auburn.

They left Auburn and moved to Fairfield Twp. DeKalb Co. Ind. Their farm accross the road from Levi Putt.

In 1870 George had retired from farming and was living in Steuben Co. Salem Twp.

His son John Anstett who married Johanna Elizabeth Catherine Putt lived on the Anstett farm. Harriett Anstett who married Levi Putt Johanna's brother was accross the road. Both farms had lanes back to their homes.

Harriett lived to be 93 years old and died Helmer, Ind. at a nieces home. She is buried in Circle Cemetery, Hudson, Ind.

SHERMAN STRAWSER

members of the Maple Grove Mennonite Church. Mr. Yoder is a republican and a stockholder in the State Bank of Topeka. His farm is well stocked with grade Holstein cattle and a specialty of the farming is the raising of pure blood White Leghorn chickens.

Their only son, Edwin J. Yoder, was born December 2, 1889. He is a high class young farmer with an interest in the scientific as well as the practical side of agriculture. He graduated from the Topeka High School, attended Goshen College and also took a course in Purdue University. He married Mollie Stoltzfus, and their three children are Geneva, born January 7, 1914; Gerald, born December 6, 1915; and Gladys Louise, born June 5, 1919.

Sherman Strawser. Though a resident of the village of Salem Center, Sherman Strawser is still active in the management of his extensive farming interests in Salem Township. He has worked the lands and raised crops in that vicinity for thirty years or more, and to some extent still specializes as an onion grower.

Mr. Strawser was born in Defiance County, Ohio, November 8, 1864, a son of George W. and Rhoda J. (Rose) Strawser. His father, who died May 26, 1914, at Hudson, where he had lived for several years, was a native of Ross County, Ohio, but from 1843 grew up in Defiance County. On August 15, 1861, he enlisted in Company D of the Thirty-Eighth Ohio Infantry, and served until July, 1865, nearly four years. He was color bearer of his regiment in the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Stone River, Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge and Jonesboro. The Thirty-Eighth Ohio was one of the hardest fighting regiments in the war. George W. Strawser was wounded at Jonesboro, where his regiment lost heavily. After the war he returned to Ohio and married Rhoda J. Rose, who was then the widow Higbea, her first husband having died while a Union soldier in 1863. In 1872 George W. Strawser moved to Steuben County and in 1881 bought a farm of 170 acres in section 21 of Salem Township. He and his wife had five children: W. T. Sherman, Amanda J., George D., Mary C. and John W.

Sherman Strawser attended his first school in Defiance County and from the age of eight has lived in Steuben County, where he attended school in Otsego Township. He also for a time was a student in the schools of Salem Center. He began working on his father's home farm two miles south of Salem Center and later became independent manager of that place, which he farmed continuously until 1916. He has since rented the farm to his son, Earl, and in the spring of 1919 moved to a comfortable home in the village of Salem Center. He owns 170 acres formerly owned by his father, and during his proprietorship has rebuilt the barn and put on several other buildings. Mr. Strawser is affiliated with the Masons, Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Modern Woodmen of America, belonging to the Masonic Lodge at Hudson and the Odd Fellows at Salem Center.

In 1890 he married Miss Della M. Anstett, a daughter of George W. and Mary Jane (Wilsey) Anstett. Mr. and Mrs. Strawser have seven children, named George Earl, Verna May, Verda J., Carl, Wayne, Wade and Ruby. The first four are married. George L. married Emma Wilcox; Verna is the wife of Daniel Tritch and has two children, Philus and Fay, Verda is the wife of Ralph Daily; while Carl married Imo J. Bassett and has a daughter, Mildred.

Finley C. Fuller is known to a majority of citizens all over Noble County, and every one in York Township knows and esteems him for his success in life and the high stand he has taken as a citizen and neighbor and friend.

The farm that he now owns was the scene of his birth on May 1, 1856. He is a son of Robert L. and Margaret J. (Coleman) Fuller, his father having been born in New Jersey July 10, 1822, and his mother in Guernsey County, Ohio. Robert L. Fuller went to Ohio and married in Guernsey County, and after four or five years there moved to Noble County, Indiana, in 1854. At that time he acquired the land contained in the present farm of his son Finley, and altogether owned 200 acres. He was one of the prosperous farmers of his generation, and a man active in other lines, prominent in the Methodist Church and a stanch republican. There were five children in the family and the three still living are: Basil, a retired farmer in York Township; Finley C.; and Alice, wife of Frank Bennett, of Warsaw, Indiana.

Finley C. Fuller grew up on the home farm and had a district school education. At the age of eighteen he began learning the carpenter's trade, and for forty-four years of his life he followed contracting, and he still takes contracts. He owns and lives on his farm of 184 acres in sections 24 and 32 of York Township.

November 21, 1877, Mr. Fuller married Samantha Ann Waltman. She was born in Noble County. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller have four living children: Bessie, a graduate of the common schools, is the wife of Orpheus Earnhart and lives in Elkhart County, Indiana; Mabel is a graduate of the common schools and was also well trained in music, and is the wife of Marion C. Hursey of South Bordman, Michigan; Bertha is a graduate of the common schools and the wife of James Dazey, and they live on the farm with her father; and Harry B. is engaged in contracting with his father. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller are members of the Presbyterian Church and he is one of the elders in the York Church. He is affiliated with Albion Lodge No. 97, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, with Kendallville Chapter No. 64, Royal Arch Masons, and both he and his wife are members of Prentiss Chapter of the Eastern Star at Albion. In politics Mr. Fuller has given stanch allegiance to the republican party since he cast his first vote. The people of York Township still have grateful appreciation of the service he rendered as trustee from 1891 to 1895. He was also for two years a member of the County Council.

Henry P. Weimer. The best years of his life Henry P. Weimer has given to the business of farming, and the results of his efforts stand out conspicuously to the traveler through Allen Township of Noble County. Mr. Weimer's farm is four miles southwest of Kendallville.

He was born in Allen Township, September 23, 1866, a son of Adam and Mary (Hess) Weimer. His father was born in Germany, July 29, 1819, and there learned the trade of shoemaker. On coming to the United States he located in Toledo, Ohio, and married there Mary Hess. She was born in Germany in 1832 and came to the United States on the same vessel with her future husband. Adam Weimer worked steadily at his trade as a shoemaker in Toledo two years, and one of his children was born there. Later he moved to Fort Wayne, worked at his trade there several years, and in the meantime invested in forty acres of raw land in Allen Township, Noble County. About 1851 he moved his family to this land, and he was steadily identified with the farm and with the local citizenship the rest of his days. He died honored

Mrs. Sarah Mapes.

Death came suddenly last night at 10 o'clock, while sitting in a chair, to Mrs. Sarah Mapes at her home, 208 West Main street. She had suffered for many years from stomach trouble and last night she suffered a recurrence of her attacks. She was sitting on her chair at the time and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Hays, hastened to her side, but before the latter could do anything to aid her she fell over dead. Death was probably due to heart disease. Dr. Stults, the coroner, held an examination today. Mrs. Mapes had not received medical attention for some time and for that reason the coroner held the post-mortem. Mrs Mapes had been a resident of Fort Wayne for a number of years and was 67 years of age. Her maiden name was Noll, and she was born in Starke county, Ohio, July 12, 1837. She was married twice, first to Charles Anstett, who died twenty years ago. A year later Mr. Anstett's death she was married to Benjamin Mapes, who survives. Mrs. Mapes leaves three children by her first husband. They are George Anstett and Mrs. Thomas Hays, of Fort Wayne, and John Anstett, of Steuben county.

Mrs. Berhardina Rodenbeck.

The merchants of Moscow have canceled an order for 400,000 quarts of bananas, placed with a Michigan manufacturer before war was declared. This will bring the Americans to their senses.

Lutheran church in Morton township, the Rev. Mr. Bermeyer officiating.

Mrs. Sarah Mapes.

Death came suddenly last night at 10 o'clock, while sitting in a chair, to Mrs. Sarah Mapes at her home, 704 West Main street. She had suffered for many years from stomach trouble and last night she suffered a recurrence of her attacks. She was sitting in her chair at the time and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Ehle, hastened to her side, but before the latter could do anything to aid her she fell over dead. Death was probably due to heart disease. Dr. Brown, the coroner, held an examination today. Mrs. Mapes had not received medical attention for some time and for that reason the coroner held the post-mortem. Mrs. Mapes had been a resident of Fort Wayne for a number of years and was 67 years of age. Her maiden name was Ball and she was born in Steuben county, Ohio, July 21, 1832. She was married twice, first to Charles Andrews, who died twenty years ago. A year after Mr. Andrew's death she was married to Benjamin Mapes, who survives. Mrs. Mapes leaves three children by her first husband. They are George Andrews and Mrs. Thomas Ehle, of Fort Wayne, and John Andrews, of Nirdlinger avenue.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MAN HERE.

R. B. Coapstick, traffic manager, of the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce, arrived in the city Sunday and will spend some time here with local chamber of Commerce men. At present the traffic bureaus of the Chambers of Commerce over the state are giving their attention to the Illinois-Indiana freight rate dispute and Mr. Coapstick is out in the interest of this movement. It is the intention of Indiana manufacturers to equalize the freight rates between Indiana and Illinois thus giving Indiana shippers an equal showing with Illinois shippers.

Mr. Coapstick is a well versed Chamber of Commerce man and while here will probably be interviewed by the leading men of the Fort Wayne Chamber of Commerce. He will also talk to a meeting of Chamber of Commerce men some time this week.

LANSING LEAVES BREST.

BREST, July 13.—Robert Lansing American secretary of state, who is returning to Washington, arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning from Paris. He embarked immediately on the steamer Rotterdam which was to sail during the afternoon.

Ways to Bathe That Repay with Beauty and Refreshment

By LUCREZIA BORI
The Famous Spanish Prima Donna

LUCREZIA BORI

THERE are various beauty baths and many skin tonics which may be applied in the bath water. One of the most directly beneficial results of the beauty bath is the feeling of refreshment that comes to the entire body and in turn is expressed in the face, particularly in the complexion and the eyes. Warm weather is often a great trial to beauty. The humidity frequently straightens the hair, gives the complexion a pale, washed-out look, and produces the general effect of fatigue and worry in the face.

If you have had a hot, trying day, nothing removes the sense of listlessness and promotes freshness of your skin and eyes like a bath if taken specially for this bracing-up process.

A warm bath is soothing while the cooler or cold bath is invigorating, but not every woman can stand the shock of a cold bath.

Old-Fashioned Recipe.

If your face is colorless and lined from fatigue, bathe it in warm water. Apply several hot water towels—towels wrung out of hot water—then massage your face quickly with a good cold cream. Wipe this off with a soft cloth and throw cold water on your face or rub it with a piece of ice held in a soft towel. This ice treatment is very effective in warm weather, and seems literally to iron out tired lines.

As you massage your face rub your forehead and temples in a rotary motion. In applying the warm towels let them remain behind your ears and at the back of your neck for several minutes.

An old-fashioned formula for a beauty bath gives the following ingredients:

Barley	3 pounds
Rice	1 pound
Pulverized lupin seeds	2 pounds
Bran	6 pounds
Oatmeal	2 pounds
Borrage	½ pound
Lavender	¼ pound
Wild gilly flower	½ pound

Boil these ingredients in soft water for an hour. Then strain and add two quarts of the decoction to your bath water, in which you have previously dissolved an ounce each of borax and bicarbonate of soda. This mixture has a remarkable cleansing, whitening and softening effect upon the skin. It may be kept in preserve jars or in a large earthen vessel with a top.

An Aromatic Bath.

A delightful aromatic bath which also possesses bleaching qualities is made of:

Thyme, dried	200 grammes
Rosemary, dried	200 grammes
Linden, dried	300 grammes
Rose petals	200 grammes
Bicarbonate of soda	250 grammes

Steep the herbs in eight quarts of boiling water for a half-hour. Decant and dissolve the soda in the infusion. Add to a bath of the same temperature of the foregoing. The penetrating sweetness and invigorating, soothing effect of this bath is thoroughly delightful.

Any list of bath waters would be incomplete without including Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's famous skin tonic, which she claims makes the flesh firm and elastic while strengthening and whitening the skin.

Alcohol	½ pint
Spirits of camphor	3 ounces
Spirits of ammonia	3 ounces
Sea salt	3 ounces
Boiling water to make one quart

Put all these ingredients in a bottle and agitate thoroughly. This lotion should be rubbed into the skin with the hands, always shaking it well before using. This lotion is very refreshing as well as beautifying.

BURGLARS MAKE GET-AWAY ON MOTORCYCLE

The Home of Edmund A. Bittler Entered at Night by Bold Masked Men

Utilizing every possible means of escape burglars have now turned to the motorcycle as a safe and quick way of escape after pulling off a job. Sunday morning at 4:30 o'clock two burglars entered the Edmund A. Bittler home at 1216 West Berry street. In looting the front room of the second story of the house the burglars made enough noise that their presence was discovered and they were compelled to make a swift dash for safety. Upon leaving the house the men ran about a half block to where they had left a motorcycle which was quickly started and they were off. While this was going on the police were notified and the wagon made a run to the Bittler home. A search of the house was made and it was discovered that the thieves had taken a lady's gold watch and a necklace. No other valuables were missing. The men gained entrance to the home by climbing over the front porch where they easily opened a window.

Arrested on Warrant.

Ralph Alldafer was arrested Sunday on a charge of assault and battery filed against him by Leroy Eckart. John Miller was arrested on a charge of public intoxication.

AUTOS TURN OVER.

Dr. and Mrs. Truelove were thrown from their automobile Sunday afternoon near the Lindenwood cemetery, when D. Truelove who was driving attempted to turn a corner. While turning this corner the machine shot over a small embankment and turned over. Fortunately for the passengers they escaped uninjured.

Dr. Truelove is an assistant to Dr. Edward H. Kruse.

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK REVIEWED BY BANKER HENRY CLEWS

NEW YORK, July 12.—President Wilson is promptly and energetically taking up the reins of government. He will doubtless secure a reasonably early ratification of the peace treaty with Germany, and it is to be hoped will succeed in establishing the league of nations after some slight modifications. The president will find an accumulation of pressing problems awaiting his consideration, and the latter half of the year promises to be a period crowded with important legislation. Congress should realize that no time should be wasted in petty political disputes. The whole country is serious-minded, and will tolerate no unnecessary delays at Washington. The nation really wants congress to get down to real business, to hasten resumption, to restore normal conditions and to revive business freedom as far as possible. President Wilson is correct in asserting that Germany should be allowed to resume trade with the rest of the world as soon as practicable; this for our own sake as much as for others.

Crop Outlook.

Our agricultural situation is somewhat mixed and not entirely satisfactory. What the world needs is an abundance of the necessities made scarce by war. Wheat is our only important crop that will be really abundant. The acreage devoted to this cereal was 71,500,000 acres, or 11,000,000 above the record; while, thanks to exceptionally good weather conditions, the yield per acre is unusually high, or 16.2 bushels. On the other hand, the corn crop is only ordinary in yield; cotton will be even shorter in supply than last year, and oats will show a deficiency. High prices assure the farmers of exceptional prosperity; but dear food is not likely to please those already burdened by the high cost of living, the only cure for which is an increased production of food, clothing and shelter. The July crop report gave the condition of wheat at 86.6, compared with a ten-year average of 81.6, and the indicated yield is 136,000,000 in excess of the record crop of 1915. Condition of corn was reported at 86.7, against a ten-year average of 84.0. The anticipated yield of corn, despite a reduced acreage, was 3,815,000,000 bushels, which has been surpassed several years, but may be classed as a fair yield. The indicated yield of oats was 1,403,000,000, a smaller yield than usual.

The future of commodity prices is a matter of much concern, and as long as their rise continues discontent is not likely to diminish. British commodities are falling; the London "Economist's" index figure at end of June being 5038, a drop of 330 points. Cereals and meats were slightly higher, but the majority of food prices there were considerably lower, and in textiles and minerals the declines were often considerable. London prices reached their zenith in September last, since when the drift has been steadily downward. There has been no such movement in the American commodity markets, which are at about top figures and show a tendency to rise rather than fall. Bradstreet's index number covering the United States showed a rise of 4.4 points in June. Textiles, hides, leather and oils made the largest advances, while breadstuffs and live stock declined slightly. No entirely satisfactory analysis of the situation here is possible. In some cases high prices here are due to scarcity. In many instaces they are the result of higher wages, higher taxes and the increased costs of production and distribution. Sometimes the pressing foreign demand is a ruling factor, and the element of inflation is conspicuous in every direction. The only cure for scarcity is enlarged output; the only offset to high wages is increased efficiency; the only antidote for taxes is economy, and the only check upon inflation is more rigid discrimination in the granting of credit. The credit market is really much in need of prudent regulation. In this respect the federal reserve system has not been allowed free operation, because of the overpowering influence of government operations from which it is not yet free. Legitimate trade and legitimate speculation alike must be conserved by a closer restriction of credit to sound concerns and sound enterprises. All great wars have been succeeded by (1) intense industrial activity, (2) great prosperity, (3) excessive speculation. We are already in stages one and two. The third is still in the future. If New York is to attain its ambition of being the first or second financial center of the world it must begin by proving its ability to independently control and stabilize its ability to maintain the cheapest and steadiest money market in the world, a situation we must meet if we expect to preserve the prestige gained during the war.

Monetary Conditions.

The condition of the money market attracts more or less attention, especially the scarcity and consequent extreme flutuations in call money. This latter is, of course, due to the enormous pressure of government borrowing, the banks naturally preferring to make such demands their first consideration. The positive attitude of the reserve board in discouraging undue speculation is the next factor of importance, and lastly the unusually heavy demand for financing legitimate foreign and domestic requirements, both of which are becoming increasingly insistent. It is quite evident that in spite of the present great expansion of credit further expansion and not contraction will be the rule in the near future. Very soon crop demands will assert themselves, followed by an active autumn trade. The problem of financing big exports is still unsolved. Other nations are coming here for funds. Canada placed a loan this week for $75,000,000 that was quickly snapped up. Not only Europe is knocking at our bank doors, but South America and the orient also. As for ourselves, we are still investing immense sums in oil, shipping, chemical and foreign enterprises. The resumption of business is slow because of high costs and the difficulties of making large loans. Any change for the better in these directions would cause a sharp revival in construction work. The steel industry shows symptoms of revival. While railroads, the best customers, are buying sparingly for obvious reasons, the oil and agricultural implement makers have been large purchasers. The demand for export trade is also improving, lower ocean freights being a stimulus in this direction. Textiles are in brisk demand in spite of abnormally high prices, and the scarcity of goods makes deliveries slow and difficult, many mills being sold far ahead. The coal situation is somewhat critical owing to the scarcity of labor, coupled with a large home demand and growing inquiries from abroad. Generally speaking, the labor outlook is embarrassing, and is not made easier by the advancing tendency of prices. Employers frequently show a readiness to meet reasonable demands, and adjustment on both sides has been facilitated by development of a spirit of mutual consideration and by elimination of the radical disturbers who too often assumed the leadership in labor troubles.

Market Tendencies.

The stock market appears to be drifting into a new stage. The buying power is excellent and there is no abatement in underlying confidence in the future; but there is a decided change of attitude toward stocks which seem to have been over-enthusiastic in discounting the future. In such quarters there has been more or less liquidation and consequent unsettlement of values. This process promises to continue, and will be accentuated by indisposition of the banks to encourage undue speculation. Sharp declines occurred in some of the specialties and profit taking was quite conspicuous at times. Such operations leave the market in a sounder condition, and serve to divert attention to securities hitherto neglected. Steel, oil, shipping and other industrial shares were particularly active. In steel there was considerable liquidation, in spite of large amounts of unfilled orders, the effect of which had been discounted in advance. Railroad securities did not receive their full share of attention, probably because of poor earnings and the fact that many of the roads are depending upon government guarantees for their dividends. Quotations, however, have been sustained by belief that the government will deal fairly with the roads, and that a heavy crop movement and trade improvement next autumn will result in sufficient earnings to offset increased expenses. Much interest naturally exists as to what the policy of the new congress will be, now that the president has returned.

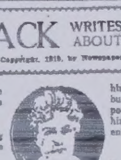
WINIFRED BLACK WRITES ABOUT "Nerves" and Punishment

Copyright, 1919, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.



SHE wasn't seriously hurt after all—the little girl who screamed so loud—but the neighbors were frightened.

She was just terrified and hysterical.

Her father and mother didn't like something she did, so they whipped her rather hard and the little girl screamed and the neighbors interfered.

The father and mother were charged with cruelty. But when the case came up before the county probation committee, which looks into things of this sort in that part of the state, the little girl went on the stand and testified that she deserved the whipping.

The father and mother testified that the child was hysterical—that's all.

And nobody did anything about anything.

How could they—under the circumstances?

Probably there wasn't anything to do. But I keep wondering about hysteria and children who are whipped and parents who do the whipping.

Is whipping one of the recognized treatments for hysteria, I wonder?

I have never heard a regular practising physician say that he thought it was—and isn't hysteria just a form of nervous derangement of some sort?

Nerves are strange things. They play the oddest kind of tricks, and the queerest thing they do is to make people believe that they don't really amount to very much.

I knew a woman once who got up in the night and killed herself. Her friends knew there was something wrong with her, but the family said, "Oh, she is just a little nervous."

"Nerves" and "Nerves"

Perhaps if they had whipped her good and hard when she began to be what they called "nervous," it might have saved her life.

There is a little boy who lives near me right now who comes home from school every once in a while shaking from head to foot with "nerves."

He is a beautiful boy, manly, bright and unusually intelligent But his teacher thinks that "nerves" should not be encouraged, so she slaps him and shakes him and boxes his ears whenever she gets a good excuse—but somehow the little boy's mother doesn't understand that teacher's point of view and she has taken the little boy out of this school and put him into another—and he has gained three pounds and looks like a different child since they have made the change.

So you see there are "nerves" and "nerves," and methods and methods.

I wonder if any human being who stops to think about it really believes that you can't bring up a girl or a boy without whipping the child once in so often.

What good do the whippings do? Ask any teacher in the public schools and she will tell you that the worst children to manage are the children who are whipped at home.

When you whip a little, helpless, defenceless child you might just as well say to that child:

"I am mad and I don't know what to do about it, so I will take it out on you."

If I couldn't manage a little, foolish, headstrong, wilful child without behaving exactly as that child would like to behave to me—I'd give up the job.

Either I would have more sense and more self-control, and more generosity and more tact than that child, or I ought to be sent to the home for the feeble-minded and kept there until I had learned something about human nature—and how to read and control it.

Control Your Own

No, I don't believe in spoiling children. I think a mother who brings up a capricious, spoiled, unendurable child is worse, and a good deal worse, than the child.

But I do believe in love, in understanding, in kindness and in some attempt at the use of calm, cool, reasoning.

Children are better than we are—a thousand times better—and if we don't keep them so, it is our own fault and not theirs.

No boxing and slappings and whippings in my family, if you please.

I'd hate to confess that I didn't have influence enough over my own children to make them behave without that.

Deaths

MRS. THRESA KAMP DIES AT 77 YEARS OF AGE

Was a Pioneer Resident of New Haven and Is Survived by Eight Children

Mrs. Thresa Kamp, age seventy-seven years, died at 12:30 o'clock Sunday noon at the home of her daughter, Miss Antoinette Kamp, in New Haven. The deceased had been in failing health for several years.

She was born in Germany and came to America when ten years old. A short time later she came to Allen county and spent the remainder of her life here. The husband, Bernard Kamp, died four years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Kamp were blessed with eight children as follows: Mrs. Mary Mack, Mrs. Anna Dally, Mrs. Cecelia Schnelker, and Miss Antoinette Kamp of New Haven; Mrs. Katie Zern and Mrs. Clementine Reed, of Fort Wayne, and Sister M. Angeline, of Fon du Lac, Wis., and Mathias Kamp, of New Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Kamp celebrated their golden wedding anniversary eight years ago.

The deceased was a member of St. John's Catholic church of New Haven and of the Altar society of that congregation. Besides the children she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Jacquay, of New Haven and Mrs. Catara Welling, of Chicago.

FILTERED WATER; WHY IT IS BEST

(N. E. A.'s Special Service Bureau.)

DETROIT, Mich., July 12.—Detroit's typhoid rate is low. The water supply, drawn from the Detroit river, is disinfected with chlorine. Detroiters are in no imminent danger from water-borne diseases.

Yet the citizens of this metropolis in Michigan, practically to a man, are enthusiastic boosters for water filtration. Somehow or other they have a strong aversion to drinking vast quantities of germs, even if they're dead germs. Chlorination is at best, Detroit residents claim, a miserable subterfuge for producing pure water.

All of which means merely that Detroit is planning to abandon its old-fashioned, unsatisfactory chlorination policy, and to build a great new filtration plant at a total cost of over $5,000,000. The modern filtration plant will cost about $145,000 a year to operate with an average daily pumpage of 250,000,000 gallons of water.

Detroit had as an alternative to filtration, the possibility of going to Lake Huron for its water. The Lake Huron scheme was seriously discussed, but filtration won the day in Detroit and thus another big and rapidly developing American city lined up in the long ranks of those which have preferred the quick, sure, safe and clean policy of filtration to the slow, uncertain and highly expensive plan of constructing a long aqueduct to some distant source of supply, at present relatively pure, but certain ultimately itself to require filtration.

The public here was strongly convinced of the desirability of building a filtration plant, even at great expense, by a unique experiment which has just been concluded. For a year and a half an experimental filtration plant has been in operation. The filtered water was piped from this plant to a large plate glass tank at the entrance of the waterworks park. Citizens had only to compare the clear, sparkling water in the tank with the turbid fluid issuing from the taps in their homes to be persuaded. Samples of the filtered water were given to them to take home. Hearty public opinion in favor of filtration was soon aroused.

Yet this contrast between filtered and unfiltered water was at no time very great in Detroit. Unlike many cities, Detroit never has fluid mud in its water mains. The Detroit river is not a dirty yellow stream, but is generally a sparkling blue current. Still the contrast between the comparatively clear Detroit river water and the final product of the experimental filtration plant was so striking as to be in itself powerfully convicing.

In the minds of the physicians, health authorities and waterworks experts who have backed the filtration plant campaign here, clear water was in itself not the whole argument, however. Through Detroit has had fair success with disinfected water since 1913, the public health experts were convinced that this process was no really adequate guarantee against water-borne diseases. They have viewed it dubiously, as at best an unsatisfactory makeshift. The peril of epidemics is always present, they hold, and will continue to be until the filtration plant is in full operation.

The effect of an unfiltered water supply upon the expansion of a city was well illustrated here during the war, when great numbers of war workers flocked to the city's plants. Many were the complaints heard among these new residents, of the slightly turbid and at best dubiously safe water. New industrial workers who might otherwise have become permanent residents, hesitated to settle down here for good merely on account of the water supply. It is expected that the prospect of a filtration plant's being constructed will now hold a large number of these hesitating new citizens.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF PERU INTO EXILE

LIMA, Peru, Saturday, July 12.—Jose Pardo, who was dropped from the presidency on July fourth, by partisans of Augusto Leguia, left the penitentiary here to-day on his way into exile.

Accompanied by his brother, Juan, former president of the chamber of deputies, the ex-president went to Chorrillos, where the brothers embarked on the steam tug Hercules which sailed north before daybreak.

It was expected that the tug would overtake the Peruvian line steamer, Ucayali, off the Peruvian coast where the Pardo brothers would go on board. The ex-president will arrive at Panama on July 17 and will remain there to await the other members of his family before proceeding to Paris by way of New York.

The departure of the former president occasioned no excitement. The political situation throughout the country, according to reports continued tranquil.

GEORGE ANSTETT, b. Nov. 20, 1800, d. Feb. 7, 1879, 77y 4 m 17 d
(Tombstone info. - County Line Cemetery, west of Ashley, Ind.)
wife

SUSAN (STOFER) ANSTETT, d. Apr. 2, 1881, 78y 10 m. (Tombstone info.)
b. June 2, 1802 Buried beside her husband

George and Susan Anstett were natives of France, living near the village of St. Nicholas, which is located near the beautiful city of Nancy in the Province of Lorraine. Their daughter Susan told her grandson, Clive Deller who served in France during World War I, to be sure to go to St. Nicholas and see if he could find any Anstetts still living there. Clive reported that he did find a bakery with a sign "Anstett" but was unable to communicate because of the language barrier. Some records show that Susan (Susanna) Stofer Anstett was born in Germany, while others show that she was born in France. Perhaps the confusion arose because she came from an area in France where the inhabitants spoke the German language and had persistently held on to their culture, in spite of alternating French and German rule. The 1880 Census shows that Susanna Anstett was born in France and that both of her parents were born in France.

George and Susan, with their little son Charles and daughter Sarah, arrived in New York about the year 1833. Sarah's "to be" husband about 15 years later was on the same boat. His name was Frederick Lewis Falka, of Germany, and his grandson told the writer that his father told him that Frederick Lewis Falka (Felky, Felkey) was nearing the age for conscription into the German army, and that his older brothers who were serving didn't want him to have to serve, too, so arrangements were made for him to leave Germany through an underground railroad type of set-up, and through this arrangement the Anstetts brought him to America with them.

George and Susan Anstett lived for awhile in Pennsylvania, said to be in Reading, before moving to the town of Peru (Miami Co.), Indiana, where they are listed in the 1850 Census. The sons, Charles 23, George 16, and John 15, worked with their father who was a tailor by trade. The Indians living around them were very friendly during the day but they could not be trusted at night, and because of the frequent thefts, decided to move to Auburn, Indiana. DeKalb County deed records show that they owned lots in Auburn. A granddaughter told the writer that her grandmother told her that at that time they could stand on their porch in Auburn and count all of the houses.

By 1854, the Anstetts had left Auburn and on August 20th at a meeting held for the purpose of organizing a German Reformed congregation to be known as St. John's, George was elected elder. The church was near North Benton, now known as Hudson, Indiana. The 1860 Census lists George Anstett as a farmer in Fairfield Twp., DeKalb Co. By 1870, he had retired from farming and was living in Salem Twp., Steuben Co., Indiana.

George and Susan had nine children: 1) Charles b. 1827, Germany; m. Saloma (Sally) Noll in Steuben Co., Ind; d. Mar. 9, 1884; bur. Trinity Cemetery, Salem Twp., Steuben Co., Ind. 2)Sarah b. 1830, France; m. 1st Frederick Lewis Falka, 2nd Samuel Goodwin. Bur. Pleasant Lake Cemetery, Steuben Co., Ind.

Hi Rob,
My Anstett were from Alsace-Lorraine in the area of Weitbruch. I have our Anstett going back to 1660. Hans Anstett m. Maria Fihl of Keffendorf{Ohlungen}
1680: Jacob Anstett m. Maria Ott of Ohlungen
1707: Andre " m. Magdalena Litzelman of Ohlungen
1735: Ehrhardt Anstett m. Elizabeth Gress of Ohlungen
1769: Joseph Anstett m. Anne Marie Peter of Weitbruch
Joseph Anstett Born in Ohlunger May 7, 1769,
His wife Anne Marie Peter born Nov. 8, 1774. Their son Francis Antoine Anstett was b. July 2, 1805 in Weitbruch. He married Therese Rothel{Roethel} on July 10, 1834. Therese was b. Nov 29, 1809, she was born in Soults-sous Forets, Alsace, daughter of John and Theresa {Laubacher} Roethel. Francis Antoine's uncle, Laurent was a witness at the wedding. I don't know if this helps at all but it can give you some insight on other Anstett's in Alsace.
Good Luck on your search.
My mother was an Anstett, her father was a Joseph Anstett the son of Philip, who was the 11 child of Francis Antoine. Francis Antoine also Left Alsace for Ontario Canada about 1841. They went ot the area of Waterloo Co. at first the place was named New Germany and it was changed to Maryhill than to Formosa in Bruce Co. Ontario.

DONNA MCDONALD
April 11, 1924 - Nov. 23, 2008
Published: Tuesday, November 25, 2008 -- The Truth, A

SHIPSHEWANA -- Donna (Strawser) McDonald, 84, of Shipshewana, died Sunday (Nov. 23, 2008) in her daughter's home after a short battle with cancer.

She was born April 11, 1924, in Steuben County to Earl and Emma (Wilcox) Strawser.

Ms. McDonald is survived by one son, Gary McDonald of LaGrange; three daughters, Cheryl (Maurice) Kirkpatrick of Howe, Victoria (Michael) Sciarra of Lakewood, Calif., and Cathy (Joseph M.) Wilcher of Shipshewana; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; one sister, Mary (Donald) Beers of Florida; and two brothers, Bud Strawser of Florida and Ted Strawser of Wolcottville.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, Dean and Herbert Strawser; and two sisters, Wava Brooks and Tillie Skeels.

Ms. McDonald lived most of her life in LaGrange and worked as one of the first supervisors at Starcraft-Emma (Ind.) Products for many years before retiring in 1988.

She was a longtime and active member of the First Church of God. When her illness prevented her from attending church, she hosted a home group so she could continue to study the Bible and maintain fellowship with her church friends. She was also a very proud volunteer at the LaGrange Hospital.

Friends may call from 1 p.m. until the 3 p.m. funeral service today at Carney-Frost Funeral Home, 603 S. Detroit St., LaGrange. Pastor Brian Van Osdol of First Church of God will officiate. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery, LaGrange.

Memorials may be given to Parkview Noble Hospital. E-mail online condolences to Carneyfrost@earthlink.net.

CHICAGO:
CHAS. C. CHAPMAN & CO.,
1880

Rev. George Rosenwinkle, of Mishawaka, who holds services every Sunday. The congregation at present is ordinarily large, and includes some of the best citizens of the township.

Evangelical Churches.—There are two Evangelical churches in the township, one situated on section 15, at Woodland, built by the Methodists, who held services there for a number of years, after which it was purchased by Fred Weber, Christopher Weigel and Fred Fassnacht, then members of the Evangelical Church. Since then that denomination has held services in it. Prior to the erection of the present church edifice, there was a log house on the same site, which was used for religious purposes. This building was the first church built in the township. The present pastor is Rev. F. Bolz, who is a resident of the township, and holds services there every other Sabbath. The congregation is small, numbering only about 16 members.

The other Evangelical church, situated on section 19, was built in 1868, and supplied the place of an old log house which stood just across the road on section 18. Some of the charter members of the Church were: Philip Marker and wife, Matthew Klein and wife, Peter and Philip Bollenbacher and their wives, Nicholas, Philip and Jacob Schlarb and their wives, and Peter Bechler. The congregation now numbers about 45 members. The first pastor was Philip Wagner; the second was Nicholas Barghart; the third, Charles Ritzman; and the fourth, Fredrich Bolz, who is the present incumbent.

Evangelical Association.—The church known by this name, is situated on section 10, and was built in 1864. A few of the first members of the Church were: Jacob Zimmer and wife, Philip Berger and wife, Michael Zimmer and wife, Michael Smith and wife, Christian Eslinger and wife, George Wise, Sr., and wife, George Frei and wife. The first pastor of the Church was Rev. George Platz; the present one is Rev. E. Treyer. The congregation is quite respectable in number, being about 55 or 60, and including many of the best citizens of Madison township.

United Brethren.—This church is located on section 17, and was built in 1878. The congregation is small. The Kidders and A. Hummel were among the earliest members of the Church. The first minister of the Church was Rev. Mr. Simons, who helped to put up the church building. The present pastor of the denomination is Rev. Mr. Beghtel, of Elkhart county.

SCHOOLS.

The present School Trustee is Amos Snyder, who was elected to that office in the fall of 1877, and was re-elected in the spring of 1880. There are 12 school buildings in the township, conveniently located, in which about seven months' school are kept annually. The educational interests of the township are well attended to by the citizens in every particular.

wife are members of the Evangelical Church. He owns 300 acres of land in this tp., although he commenced with nothing.

Philip Berger, son of Michael and Fredrica (Matz) Berger, deceased, was born in Germany in 1821, and came to this country with his parents in 1832, and to this State in 1838, settling in Marshall county, where he resided until 1850, when he came to this tp. He was married during the same year to Elizabeth Walmer, who was born in Germany in 1826; they have 10 children: Peter, Mary, Michael, Elizabeth, William, Katie, Edward, Caroline, Sarah and Ellen. Mr. B. and his wife are members of the Evangelical Association; politically, he is a believer in the doctrines of the Republican party. His educational advantages were rather limited; he has worked hard all his life, being poor when he began for himself; he now owns 280 acres of land, which he values at about $30 per acre; he is a successful tiller of the soil on sec. 15. P. O., Bremen.

Jacob Birk, farmer, sec. 30; P. O Mishawaka; was born in Germany in 1836, and came to this country in 1852, and to this county in 1860. He is a son of George and Elizabeth (Feerer) Birk, now deceased, and were natives of Germany. In 1857 Mr. B. was married to Regne Hoss, who was born in Germany in 1833; they have 6 children, all of whom are living: Christina, Henry, Elizabeth, Catharine, Susan and Lewis. They are members of the Evangelical Church. He owns 140 acres of land, worth about $35 per acre.

Peter Bollenbacher, son of Michael and Elizabeth Bollenbacher, was born in Prussia in 1823, and came to this country in about 1848, and to this tp. in 1855. He had nothing when he first began in life and has worked hard during the whole time. He now owns 80 acres of land, worth about $45 per acre. He was educated in Germany; is a Democrat, and he and his wife are members of the Evangelical Church. In 1849 he married Miss Margaret Schlarb, who was born in Germany in 1821; they have had 6 children, of whom only 2 are now living: Margaret, who is the wife of Jacob Topper, a farmer in this tp., and William, who is still at home.

Jacob Conrad, son of Jacob and Mary (Stilengerbouer) Conrad, was born in Prussia in 1847, and came to this tp. in 1854. He was married in 1873 to Mary E. Marker, who was born in this tp. in 1856, and they have 2 children: John P. and Charles J. Mr. C. and wife are members of the Evangelical Church. Politically, he is a Democrat; his educational advantages were only ordinary. He owns 40 acres of land; has worked hard all his life.

Thomas Crakes, son of Francis and Martha (Marshall) Crakes, was born in England in 1827, and was brought to America by his parents when quite young. They first settled in New York, and are now deceased. Mr. C. came to this tp. in 1848; he was married in 1849 to the widow Hollingshed, whose maiden name was Mary Moon; she was a native of New York, and died in 1868, leaving 6 children: Francis M., Lawrence W., Martha A., Mary J., George wife are members of the Evangelical Church. He owns 229 acres of land in this tp., although he commenced with nothing.

Philip Berger, son of Michael and Frederica (Metz) Berger, deceased, was born in Germany in 1821, and came to this country with his parents in 1828, and to this State in 1839, settling in Marshall county, where he resided until 1850, when he came to this tp. He was married during the same year to Elizabeth Walters, who was born in Germany in 1830; they have 10 children: Peter, Mary, Michael, Elizabeth, William, Katie, Edward, Caroline, Sarah and Ellen. Mr. B. and his wife are members of the Evangelical Association; politically, he is a believer in the doctrines of the Republican party. His educational advantages were rather limited; he has worked hard all his life, being poor when he began for himself; he now owns 320 acres of land, which he values at about $50 per acre; he is a successful tiller of the soil on sec. 16. P. O., Bremen.

Jacob Birk, farmer, sec. 30; P. O. Mishawaka; was born in Germany in 1830, and came to this country in 1853, and to this county in 1860. He is a son of George and Elizabeth (Hesse) Birk, now deceased, and were natives of Germany. In 1857 Mr. B. was married to Regina Hess, who was born in Germany in 1836; they have 6 children, all of whom are living: Christina, Henry, Elizabeth, Catharine, Susan and Lewis. They are members of the Evangelical Church. He owns 145 acres of land, worth about $45 per acre.

Peter Bollenbacher, son of Michael and Elizabeth Bollenbacher, was born in Prussia in 1820, and came to this country in about 1848, and to this tp. in 1853. He had nothing when he first began in life and has worked hard during the whole time. He now owns 80 acres of land, worth about $40 per acre. He was educated in Germany; is a Democrat, and he and his wife are members of the Evangelical Church. In 1849 he married Miss Margaret Schuck, who was born in Germany in 1821; they have had 6 children, of whom only 2 are now living: Margaret, who is the wife of Jacob Yerrian, a farmer in this tp., and William, who is still at home.

Jacob Conrad, son of Jacob and Mary (Shlangerbower) Conrad, was born in Prussia in 1847, and came to this tp. in 1864. He was married in 1873 to Mary E. Harker, who was born in this tp. in 1856, and they have 2 children: John F. and Charles J. Mr. C. and wife are members of the Evangelical Church. Politically, he is a Democrat; his educational advantages were only ordinary. He owns 40 acres of land; has worked hard all his life.

VITAL STATISTICS INDEX TO

ST. JOSEPH COUNTY, INDIANA

NEWSPAPERS, 1831 - 1912

INTRODUCTION

This index has been compiled in an effort to provide unified and simple access to births, marriage licenses, marriages, divorces and deaths mentioned in the 7,917 issues of ten various newspapers published in St. Joseph County between 1831 and 1912. These ten newspapers, in chronological order, the years indexed for each, and their symbol in the index are:

NWP	Northwestern Pioneer & St. Joseph Intelligencer (Including the St. Joseph Beacon & Indiana & Michigan Intelligencer) November 1831 - October 1832
IFP	Indiana Free Press (Including South Bend Free Press) July, 1836 - March, 1942
SJV	St. Joseph Valley Register, September 1845 - December 1884
FOR	St. Joseph County Forum, August 1853 - May 1863
NAT	National Union, August, 1866 - December 1871
SBW	South Bend Weekly Tribune, March, 1872 - December 1909
SBT	South Bend (Daily Tribune), May 1873 - July 1879; December 1909 - December 1912
SRG	The Sunday Register, November, 1879 - December, 1884
MDJ	Mishawaka Daily Journal, November, 1908 - April 1909
ERA	New Era, August 1910 - July 1911

Together, these ten titles provide continuous coverage of St. Joseph County and surrounding counties in Indiana and Michigan except for the periods 1833-1836 and 1842-1845 for which no newspapers were available for indexing. There are also scattered dates when one or two issues are missing from various titles causing coverage to be less than complete. A brief history of each newspaper follows the body of the index arranged in the order shown above, by first date of publication.

This index was created from both actual copies and microfilm copies of the newspapers. Readers should be aware that some dates may be omitted from either bound volumes of original newspapers or microfilm reels, so that users may need to consult both in order to view all citations. Originals and microfilm are from the collections of the Northern Indiana Historical Society and the Mishawaka-Penn Public Library. Readers should also be aware that as time passed, some older issues were damaged or discolored before microfilming, while others have become extremely difficult to read on microfilm.

Although this index is intended to be as inclusive as possible, not all names have been included. In general, national and state political figures, military leaders, and individuals from other states or distant parts of Indiana have been excluded unless they have some tie with this area or with area residents. Thus readers will find Vice-President Schuyler Colfax listed but not President Abraham Lincoln, even though Lincoln's death is reported. Tourists or transients who may have died here are listed, but the names of people who died in a California train wreck, for instance, are not listed unless they had local connections.

Death of Mrs. Berger.

Following an illness of some two years, rendered more serious by a stroke of paralysis in January, Mrs. Edward Berger died Saturday morning at 8 oclock at the family home in the west part of town. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in Grace U. B. church, of which deceased was a member. Rev. Kessinger, the pastor, preached the sermon. Interment was in the Bremen cemetery.

Emma Katherine Carbiener, daughter of John and Katherine Carbiener, was born in Union township, St. Joseph county, September 23, 1866. On August 12, 1886, she was united in marriage with Edward Berger. Five children were born to them—Mrs. Philip Haney of Grayville, Ill.; Floyd Clayton, Ralph Herbort, Mrs. Raymond France and Ruth Annette Berger—all of whom, with the husband and four grandchildren, survive the mother. Mrs. Berger lived her entire life in this vicinity, and will be mised and mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Old Resident Dies at Fort Wayne Thursday

Edward Berger, one of the older and well known citizens of the community north of Bremen and a life long resident here, died Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Geroux in Fort Wayne, where he had been living for the past year. He was ill only about nine days, nephritis and uraemic poisoning being the cause of his death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Philip Haney, near Ebenezer church, southeast of Bremen. Rev. A. F. Knepp of Bremen was in charge of the funeral service. Burial was in the Bremen cemetery.

Mr. Berger was born in Madison township , St. Joseph county, Jan. 28, 1863. He was married in 1886 to Miss Emma Carbiener, who preceded him in death. Three daughters and two sons were born to them, all of whom survive—Mrs. Minnie Haney of Bremen, Floyd Berger of Mishawaka, Ralph Berger of Lapaz, Mrs. Sadie France of Van Nuys, California, and Mrs. Ruth Bretz of Lucas, Kansas. He is survived also by one brother and six sisters, as follows: Mrs. Charles Rhoade, Bremen; Mrs. Philip Ewald, Abilene, Kansas; Mrs. Catherine Carbiener, Lucas, Kansas; Mrs. E. Q. Lauieman, Fort Wayne; William Berger, Collyer, Kansas; Mrs. Chris. Eslinger, Bremen; Mrs. J. F. Weiss, Naperville, Ill.

—Mr. Philip Berger an aged resident of this city died yesterday morning after a lingering illness of two months. Funeral services will be conducted at the Evangelical church Sunday morning at 10:45. Rev. Wm. Braeckly will officiate.

—David Carbiener and family of Lucas, Kansas, arrived in Bremen last Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Carbiener's father, Philip Berger, whose funeral was held on Sunday. Mr. Carbiener made the ENQUIRER office a pleasant call Monday and reports everything flourishing in Kansas, with another immense wheat crop in that state. He is engaged in the mercantile trade and is enjoying a splendid business. Himself and family will remain here a week or ten days before returning to their home.

Abington Monthly Meeting	1684	..	Byberry (called at first Poetquessing) was settled in 1682 by Friends from England, whose dwellings at first were small rough log-houses. One family lived in a wigwam which they built under the instruction of the Indians, until they erected a small log-house. The Meeting-house was rebuilt in 1714, and was 50 feet by 30, with galleries. Frankfort, (called at first Tookany,) and Byberry, were constituted a Monthly Meeting under the following minute of Philadelphia Quarterly Meeting of Fifth Month, 1683: "It was agreed and concluded, that there be established a First-day Meeting of Friends at Tookany and Poetquessing, and that these two make one Monthly Meeting of men and women, for the ordering of the affairs of the church." Germantown was settled by Friends from Germany, who bought 6,000 acres of land.

YOUR FAMILY TREE

WHERE DO YOU BEGIN? Begin with yourself. Always proceed from the present to the past. Record your name, place and date of birth, marriage and residence. Now search out and record the same type of vital record information about your parents, then your grandparents, and so on through as many generations as possible.

Start gathering your information by interviewing older living members of your family. Family documents, certificates, licenses, Bible records, scrapbooks, and photo albums can be very helpful. The library will have many sources of data including genealogies, census records, directories, and military records.

LOCATING BOOKS. Most of the books in the collection are located in closed stacks, though some statewide finding aids, vital records, and other references are available for browsing on the open shelves in the reading room. You can identify the books you would like to use by checking the card catalog under the author, subject, or title of the book. Subjects would include the name of the family (e.g. MARTIN FAMILY), or the name of a geographic area, followed by a subject heading (e.g. AUGUSTA CO., VIRGINIA. BIOGRAPHY.) Please fill out a request slip for each book you would like to use and the books will be brought to your seat in a few minutes by the paging staff.

LOCATING MICROTEXT. Microtext records are cataloged separately in the microtext reading room. Check the microtext catalog under the appropriate subject to get the roll number of the film you would like to use. You may get the microtext yourself, one item at a time. Please place all used microtext on the return cart for refiling by the staff. Aside from drawers marked census, city directories, military records, and passenger lists, be sure to check the lower half of the microtext catalog under the name of the state for county histories, vital records, or other courthouse records available only on microtext.

LOCATING PERIODICALS. Most genealogy periodicals are filed alphabetically by title in the open stacks of the department. Check the PERiodical Source Index (PERSI) on the reference shelves under the name of the family or the name of the state and county for a list of relevant articles.

ABBREVIATIONS USED

AT = Awaiting transportation, followed by the date of the Session on which the notation appears.

LC = Landing Certificate issued at the colonial port of entry, followed by the date of issue.

QS = Quarter Sessions of the Peace. Where this notation appears the trial record will not be found amongst the Assize papers but in Quarter Sessions documents held by the appropriate County Record Office.

R = Reprieved on condition of transportation to the American colonies. In the case of those reprieved for 14 years' or for life transportation, this is noted where it appears in the records; otherwise the term imposed was normally seven years.

S = Sentenced to be transported to the American colonies for a period of seven years unless otherwise stated, followed by the date of the Sessions at which the trial took place.

SP = State Papers. This notation appears where the name has been found in State Papers but not traced in the Assize records.

s = Stealing.

T = Transported or Transportation.

Md = Maryland.

Va = Virginia.

The Borough of Hatfield was created from a part of Moreland in 1871 and part of Hatfield Township 1898

Norristown was created from Norriton Township, 1812

Pottstown from part of Pottsgrove Township in 1815

We have listed the year of the death, whenever possible, the decedents name and the township in which he resided.

The letters "RW" designate "Register of Wills" and a will has been filed under this number. The asterick proceeding RW, means that the will is on microfilm and can be seen at the Library of the Historical Society of Montgomery County, located at 1654 DeKalb Street, Norristown. The original will is filed in the Record Room of the Court House.

The letters "OC" shows that papers are filed in the Orphans Court on the estate, these also can be found in the Record Room of the Court House.

Unfortunately in the Court House Index very few of the names listed give dates, either of the death or of the recording of the will or administration, therefore there may be some listed in this Index, who died after 1850.

Other notes and abbreviations found in the original records include the designation for twin, shortened here to tw, and ill for illegitimate. Researchers will find evidence for the birth of twins in these records beyond those identified by tw. The twin designation was used or copied here only when it was found in the source record.

Lastly there are two sections at the end that deserve special note. One section, labeled miscellaneous, contains birth records where the surname was unknown. The second section contains births found in Quaker records for married women, that is, the surname given was the husband's surname, not the father's. In those records the names of parents were not given.

NATURALIZATION TERMINOLOGY OF THIS TEXT AND ABSTRACTS OF NATURALIZATION LAW

Alien - An immigrant over the age of 18 years at time of entry into the U. S.

Minor - An immigrant under the age of 18 years at time of entry into the U. S.

Application (App.) or Intention (Int.) is basically the same, as it is the terminology used when an immigrant made his application of intent to become a citizen.

Naturalization - The terminology used when an immigrant who resided in the U. S. for 3 years after his application of intent, and had applied for and was granted his final naturalization papers of citizenship.

Normal time table for naturalization - An immigrant needed to be a resident of the U. S. for 2 years before filing his application of intent to be naturalized. He needed to be a resident of the U. S. an additional 3 years before filing for his final naturalization papers.

There are a few persons in this text who seem not to comply with this total of 5 years of residence in the U. S. A few of these may be from mistakes of interpretation of hand writing or other mistakes. Others do come under exceptions of the 5 year time period, and some of these are covered by exceptions which are included in the various laws which are quoted in the next paragraphs below, which cover the time period of just prior to the Statehood of Ohio to the late 1800s.

This next portion of this page was derived from a publication - THE DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP 1608 - 1870 by James H. Kettner - published in 1978.

Quote, " Jefferson's election in 1800 was quickly followed by repeal of the obnoxious Naturalization Act of 1798. A new law approved April 14, 1802, reinstated the general requirement established in 1795; residence of five years with a declartion of intent three years before admission; (a previous law of 1798 had raised the total residence requirement to fourteen years)oaths or declarations abjuring titles and foreign allegiance and swearing attachment to the principles of the Constitution; and satisfactory proof of good character and behavior. the act included provisions for the registration of all immigrants, and alien enemies were still barred from naturalization. Foot note 91 - Act of April 14, 1802.

The Naturalization act of 1802 was the last major piece of legislation on the subject during the nineteenth century. A number of minor revisions were introduced before the Civil War, but these merely altered or clarified details of evidence, certification, and the like without changing the basic nature of the admission procedure.

Foot Note 92 - An act of March 26, 1804, exempted aliens resident between the acts of 1798 and 1802 from the declaration-of-intent requirement and also provided that widows and children of aliens dying before the completion of their admission be deemed naturalized. An act of March 3, 1813, declared that aliens must reside 5 yrs. cantinuously without at any time being out of the United States; but the clause was repealed June 26, 1848. A statute of July 10, 1813, allowed alien enemies who had already begun admission procedures before the outbreak of the war to complete the process. Acts of March 22, 1816, May 26, 1824 and May 24, 1828, regulated the evidence required in naturalization procedures. The act of Feb. 10, 1855, concerning the status of women and children has been mentioned above. A wartime act of July 17, 1862, allowed aliens who had served in the regular or voluntary forces and who could prove their honorable discharge to be naturalized without the declaration of intent and with only two years residence. "

These Quotes above, pretty well cover the laws, which cover the time period of this text. A study of this quoted material might give some answers to the various questions and problems of persons doing naturalization research.

From about 1800 or 1805 to 1825, William Drucks and Anthony Van Pool manufactured iron shovels and pans, in Greencastle, did a large business, and made considerable money.

The manufacture of mill-stones was established in Chambersburg about the year 1792, by James Falkner, Jr., and was extensively conducted for many years. The stones were brought here in the rough, upon wagons, were then shaped up and put together, and large numbers sold in the county, and to other points further west, to those having need for them.

In 1820 George Walker and George Roupe carried on a "burr mill-stone manufactory" on the Baltimore turnpike, about two miles east of Chambersburg.

Andrew Cleary also manufactured mill-stones in Chambersburg as late as 1829, he being the last person who carried on the business in the county. His shop was on West Market street None of these avocations are now carried on in our county that I know of.

In the latter part of the last century and in the earlier years of this century there were quite a number of oil mills in various sections of the county, where oil was regularly manufactured from flax seed, much of which was annually raised by the farming community. There may yet be some places in the county where this business is carried on, but I do not know their locality if such there be.

Flax mills were also quite numerous in those early days, where the hemp raised by the farmers was broken and prepared for use. For one oil or hemp mill that can now be found grinding or pounding away, there were ten then.

In the last century there were few, if any, cut nails used. Almost all nails were then made by hand, upon the anvil, out of the iron bar. Every blacksmith did more or less of such work, and was looked to by his neighbors to supply them with all the nails they needed for fencing, shingling, house building, &c. Early in the century Hugh and Michael Greenfield established a large nail factory at Chambersburg, where they made all kinds of nails by hand. Their shop stood on the lot on which the Foundry of T. B. Wood & Co. now stands. In the year 1819 they declined the business, and handed over the shop to John R. Greenfield & Co., who continued it until about 1820.

From 1808 to 1810 or 1812, there was a nail factory carried on by the County Commissioners in the Jail, the prisoners being the workmen. Large sums of money were annually paid to Col. Samuel Hughes, by the county, for iron to be manufactured into nails in the county nail shops.

In the year 1814 Messrs. Brown & Watson established their "Conococheague Rolling Mill and Nail Factory." They made rolled iron, cut nails, brads, sprigs, &c., and were, I think, the first manufacturers of cut nails in our county.

In the year 1821 Christian Etter commenced the manufacture of cut nails in Chambersburg. His manufactory was located "on the north side of the Falling Spring, opposite the English Presbyterian church.

Thomas Johns commenced the manufacture of augers of all sizes at Chambersburg, at a very early day. They were made by hand, out of flat bars of iron, were twisted in the common vise, the edges filed down and burnished upon a large emery wheel, and the inner surface of the twist was painted black. It required considerable skill and experience to make a perfect article.

William Ferry also subsequently followed the same business extensively for many years. He had his manufactory at his dwelling on West Market street.

Philip Sholl, at a very early period, carried on at Chambersburg, the manufacture of cards for fulling mills, and for all other purposes.

George Faber, also, at a later period, followed the same business quite extensively. For many years he had his "card factory" on the lot where the Gillan property now stands, on West Market street, opposite Miller's Hotel. Mr. Faber gave employment to many females at "setting" or sticking cards. That work was then all done by hand, and it is said that many even of the better class of our females did not disdain to take work from Mr. Faber, and thus earn an honest penny. In after years he invented an ingenious machine for sticking his cards, and did away with female labor. He removed to Pittsburg about the year 1824.

Glove making was also carried on at this point for many years by a man named ——— Rians, and others.

About the year 1794, Anthony Snider commenced the manufacture of scythes and sickles where the upper brewery of David Washabaugh formerly stood, on West King street.

John and Thomas Johns, about the year 1812, commenced the manufacture of sickles and scythes in Chambersburg, and carried on the business largely and successfully for a long time, down to near 1820. Their factory was in "Kerrstown," on South Main street, on the lot south of Heart's pottery.

In the year 1820 a man named Jacob Smith commenced the manufacture of tacks of all sizes at Chambersburg. Each tack was made by hand, as no machinery for their manufacture had then been invented, or if invented had not been introduced here.

The manufacture of hats, which were then all made of wool and furs of various fineness, was early commenced at various points in our county. John M'Clintock carried on in Waynesboro in 1810; John Rowe, Jacob Krepps and John Weitzel about the same time at Greencastle; John M'Murdy and Thomas Carson at Mercersburg; and Jacob Deckert and others at Chambersburg. In the year 1815, Mr. M'Clintock removed from Waynesboro to Chambersburg, and

(1852 - 1854)

In the early 1850's, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania passed a law that all birth & death records should be kept in every county. These started in 1852 and then the law was repealed and they ceased to be kept in 1854. Occassionally a county will even have kept marriage records for this short period of time.

While every county kept these records, many of them have not been preserved. It seems that the court houses or county governments had a choice of whether they would like to keep them or send them to the State Archives. So, some will be found in the County Court House and some in the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission Archives, which was formerly the State Archives. Occassionally, there will be no trace of them at all, and once in a while I find that the court house personel says they don't have them and I will find them tucked away somewhere.

In this county these early 1852 to 1854 Birth & Death Records will be found at : The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission (State Archives) in Harrisburg. (See page 52 of the Pennsylvania Area Key.)

to have been settled, it being greatly exposed to Indian depredations. As a rule, warrants date from 1755, the earliest one found, to 1769, between which dates are found Enoch Williams, Rees Shelby, William Smith, William Pindell, Evan Phillips, Samuel Owen, James McClellan, Hugh Martin, John Martin, David Huston, Lewis Davis and David Brown.

Washington Township, it seems, was not settled so early as some of the eastern and southwestern districts. It and Quincy Township became largely the homes of the Germans, who crossed South Mountain from York and Adams Counties. Warrants from 1743 to 1750 embrace Michael Legate, John Markley, John Moorhead, James Johnston, Jacob Beesecker, Edward Nichols, Michael Raumsawher, Mathias Ringer, John Stoner, John Steiner, John Snowberger, James Whitehead and John Wallace.

It is much to be regretted that the names of these early pioneers, who struggled so heroically against the wilds of the forest and the depredations of the savages, have not been more carefully preserved. We append, however, a list of taxable names in 1751 and 1752. From it may be learned the general locations of these settlers:

TAXABLES' NAMES, 1751 AND 1752.

In Antrim Township—which embraced the territory now in Antrim, Washington and Quincy Townships—the taxables' names were as follows: William Allison, Widow Adams, Joshua Alexander, Thomas Brown, Jacob Batterly, William Brotherton, John Chambers, George Cassil, William Clark, William Cross, Joshua Coal, Josh. our merchant vessels upon the high seas, and also the right to impress seamen, found in such merchant service, was the provoking cause to the national motto given above.

June 12, 1812, Congress declared war against Great Britain, and the President called upon the people to take up arms.

It is not proposed here to give a history of the ensuing war. That is a part of the general history of our country. The part taken therein by Franklin County is the boundary limit of this chapter.

During the three years of hostilities thirteen companies of Franklin County men were recruited and sent to the field of action. Some time before actual hostilities were declared our people anticipated the coming struggle, and in the towns, villages and rural districts the nuclei of military organizations were formed. A large number of these was found in this county, many of them ready on short notice to march in effective martial display to the front. We have the names of the Antrim Greens, a rifle company of 60 men; Franklin County Light Dragoons, 41 men—captain, Mathew Patton; Mercersburg Rifles, 72 rank and file—captain, James McDowell; Concord Light Infantry, 30 men—captain, Michael Harper; Chambersburg Union Volunteers, 51 men—captain, Jeremiah Snider. These companies at once tendered their services, through County Brigade Inspector William McClellan, to the Government.

The first detachment of troops left the county September 5, 1812. This was composed of the Union Volunteers, the Franklin Riflemen, the Concord Light Infantry, the Mercersburg Rifles and the Antrim Greens—total, 264, officers and men. The quota of the county was 507, and the deficiency was made up by draft from the militia. Maj. William McClellan was in command of the detachment. They were sent to the northwest frontier, proceeding there by way of Bedford, Pittsburgh and Meadville, reaching the latter place in September. The troops were there re-organized into four regiments—two of rifles and two of infantry. Jeremiah Snider was elected colonel of the First Regiment, John Purviance, of the Second Regiment. The four regiments being formed into a brigade, under Gen. Tannahill, Dr. Samuel D. Culbertson, of Chambersburg, was appointed surgeon-in-chief; John McClintock became captain of Snider's company, on latter being made colonel, and Geo. K. Harper was promoted to the vacant lieutenancy in Snider's company. The companies of Capts. McClintock, Reges and Harper were in Col. Snider's regiment, and those of Capts. Oaks and Hays in Col. Jared Irwin's regiment. Immediately after the re-organization, the command marched to Buffalo, reaching there in November, where it went into winter quarters, and remained until discharged, their term of enlistment expiring in January, 1813.

August 24, 1814, the Americans, under Gen. Winder, were defeated at the battle of Bladensburg; the same day the British entered Washington and burned the capitol and other buildings. This fired anew the hearts of the people. The people by common impulse rang the bell and assembled in meetings. The people at one of these meetings, in Franklin County, dispatched one of their number as a messenger to the national authorities to learn if more troops were wanted or would be accepted. The news borne by the messenger was gladly received, and word returned that the Government wanted more troops. When the people learned this they gave expressions to their joy, and all the bells of the town were rung, drum and fife corps paraded the streets, and in a few days seven companies were organized, equipped, and on their way to Baltimore. One of them was a troop of cavalry, from Mercersburg, under Capt. Mathew Patton, which marched to Baltimore, but their services were not accepted as cavalry were not needed, but the majority of the troops determined to go to the war, disposed of their horses, and joined different companies of infantry.

The following are the rosters of the companies that left the county in the early part of September, 1814:

to all new settlements, as civilization extended her borders westward, where the usual comforts and necessaries of life are not found, and, if wanted, could not be procured without great expense and difficulties in transportation.

"We were told by an old lady (the mother of an extensive family in Chambersburg) some years ago, that when she and her husband arrived, which was about 1785, they were immediately called on by Mrs. and Mr. Chambers, and heartily welcomed to their new home, with a pressing invitation to call and see them. A short time afterward they availed themselves of the invitation, and found the latch string of the door hanging out and the family snugly housed in their new cabin, with a board floor, a comfort which but few of the houses at that time had. The very kindly manner in which they were received had quite an encouraging influence, and it made them feel that, although among a strange people and in a new and wild country, they were among friends and protectors, which inspired them with fresh zeal in their newly adopted home.

"One can form some little idea of the wild state of the country when Chambersburg was first settled, from the fact that, about 1785, immediately back from Radebaugh's tavern stand, it was a wild wilderness so thickly overgrown that it was not safe for any one unacquainted to enter into it any distance, for fear of being lost. It was no uncommon thing to hear wolves near the town howl. This we have from one of the early settlers."

In the paper from which we took the foregoing extract, Mr. Ruby gives a list of the leading business men of the olden time. It does not pretend to be exhaustive, but serves its purpose in perpetuating the names and memories of the first inhabitants, one object had in view in this compilation.

OLD GRAVEYARD TRANSCRIPTIONS.

In Brown's Mills Cemetery are found the following: Henry Pawling, died in 1761 (this is the oldest record on the stones in this graveyard); near this is another which informs us that Henry Pawling died February 15, 1794, aged forty seven years. John M. Pawling, born December 1, 1783, died November 26, 1838; Rebecca, daughter of Thomas Prather, and wife of John M. Pawling, born May 18, 1788, died November 12, 1864. Sarah Courtney, died August 29, 1802, aged sixty-two years. Jane McCleary, consort of Robert McCleary, born March 7, 1766, died July 20, 1851. William Reynolds, died April 2, 1819, aged seventy-nine years; Ruth Reynolds, died June 23, 1824, aged eighty-two years. John McLean, born November 13, 1766, died August 1, 1849. James Poe, one of the Revolutionary patriots, died June 22, 1822, aged seventy-four years; Elizabeth Poe, consort, died September 11, 1819, aged fifty-two years. Rev. Mathew Lind, died April 21, 1800, aged sixty-eight years; his consort, Jennette Fulton, died April 1, 1819, aged seventy-three years. James Witherspoon, died March 18, 1838, aged eighty-one years; Mary, consort, died November 25, 1838, aged eighty-seven years.

In cemetery near Shady Grove are found the following: Col. Thomas Johnson, died in 1819, aged seventy-five years; Martha Beatty, consort, died in August, 1811. Eliza M. Lanahan, daughter of Thomas Johnson, died aged fifty-eight years. Joseph Cooke, died February 5, 1804, aged eighty-two years. James Johnston, born in north of Ireland, died in 1765. From documents in the possession of his descendants, he settled in Antrim Township in the early part of the year 1735. There are some evidences indicating that he was the first white settler in the township. In time, however, he would have preceded those mentioned above by a few months. Add to these the account of the interments in Mossy Spring Cemetery, given in the account of Greencastle, and it makes a full account of necrology of the early settlers.

LIST OF TAXABLES—1786.

The earliest records accessible, of those who were here in 1786, are furnished in the list of taxables for that year, in Antrim Township with its present boundaries, including the borough of Greencastle.

CHURCHES.

Methodist Episcopal Church in Little Cove.—The first traveling minister of the Methodist-Episcopal Church in "Little Cove" was Rev. George Askins. He preached his first sermon in Ford's barn (now on the farm on which the Warren Iron Works stand, and owned by Mrs. Eliz. Ferry,) in 1814. His class was organized in July, 1816, by Rev. Lawrence, missionary. Preaching occurred at the house of Joshua Philips, and at schoolhouses, till 1859, when the present brick structure was erected at a cost of $1,400; list of ministers: George Askins, N. B. Mills, Robert Wilson, Thos. Larkins, George Brown, Lawrence Everhart, Hamilton Jefferson, Frederick Stick, Caleb Reynolds, James Painter, Wm. Monroe, James H. Hansen, John S. Gibbons, Robert Wilson, John O. Poysal, Robert Minshall, James Sanks, Wm. Butter, David Sharer, Christopher Parkison, Basil Barry, Jesse Stansberry, Nathaniel Cunningham, Wm. B. ST. THOMAS—1818.

This is a rich and important township in the very heart of the county, and one of the latest formed, yet this very fact causes the exact date of its formation to be in the greatest doubt. The county records giving an account of its organization having all been destroyed in the burning of Chambersburg in 1864, we fix upon the date above from the best recollection of old citizens. The territory was taken from Peters and Hamilton Townships. The township received its name in honor of Thomas Campbell, the founder of Campbellstown (St. Thomas). Emigrants had arrived within its borders before the land titles of the Indians were extinguished.

EARLY LAND ENTRIES.

The early land entries were as follows:

Joseph Armstrong, August 26, 1751. Neighbors: Patrick Knox, Robert Elliott, Johnston Elliott, Mathew Patton, Isaac Patterson.

Thomas Armstrong, August 4, 1738. (No one adjoining).

Robert Clugadge, May 24, 1743. (No neighbors).

VILLAGES.

St. Thomas, the principal village, is located about eight miles west of Chambersburg. The first settlers in this neighborhood came as early as 1737. The village was laid out by Thomas Campbell in 1790, and for many years it was known as "Campbellstown." This name was attached to it almost exclusively for about sixty years. Even when the official name was given it, it still followed after the idea of being in honor of Thomas Campbell, and so they merely added the expressive "St." to his given name, and thus it became St. Thomas.

Col. John Armstrong, John Campbell and John Dixon were the first settlers in this neighborhood. Col. Armstrong settled on the farm now occupied by Samuel Walker and owned by Mrs. Samuel Rhea, about three miles north of the village of St. Thomas.

John Campbell made his improvement on what is now the farm of Fredricks Gelwicks' heirs, near the head of Campbell's Run, one mile west of the village. John Dixon settled where William D. Dixon now lives, at the head of Dixon Run, one mile north of the village. Mr. William D. Dixon informs us he thinks that John Campbell was the first to settle in the township and make a permanent improvement; that he was followed next by John Dixon. There was the strong bond between these families—they were of the "Argyles" of Scotland, and it seems wherever the Campbells went, there you would also find the Dixons. Mr. Dixon also informs us the name "St. Thomas" was the suggestion of William Archibald, whose descendants now live on the old farm one mile east of the village. The only controlling forces were the Argyle clan.

GREENFIELD, THOMPSON, SIBBET

Posted by Loralee Crookston <crookstn@erols.com> on Mon, 06 Jul 1998

Surname:

I am looking for information on Richard Greenfield who lived in Carlisle in 1790 and then moved to Chambersburg. His wife was Agnes and known children, Hugh Greenfield d. 1838 and Nancy Ellen Greenfield b. 1801 and d. 1861 in Ohio. Hugh married Nancy Thompson in 1815 at Newville (she was from Springfield). After Nancy's death, Hugh Married Elizabeth Sibbet of Dickson. They lived in Franklin county, but after Hugh's death in 1838, Elizabeth moved back (1841 she was received back into the 2nd Presbyterian Church)to Carlisle and lived there until her death. Nancy Ellen married Samuel Sibbet in about 1820 and they lived in Quincy. Richard may have had another son named John.

PREFACE

Church Records

The year each meeting was established is given in the list that follows; however, Friends meeting records frequently have vital information for members that occurred prior to the date the meeting was established. As an example, Birmingham Meeting was established in 1815, but there are records for members of that meeting born in 1790 and earlier in the register.

For the non-Quaker records the date is the year for the first baptismal entry found in that register. In some instances the church was actually organized or established earlier.
